PAK CHIEF JUSTICE OFFICIALLY OPENS REBUILT HINDU TEMPLE

Gulzar Ahmed emphasises Supreme Court's minority-friendly stance while inaugurating the shrine demolished by radicals

'INTERNATIONAL EMBARRASSMENT' TO PAK

In December last year, a mob led by Jamiat Ulema-e-Islam Fazl (JUI-F) clerics demolished the century-old Shri Paramhans Ji Maharaj temple in Khyber Pakhtunkhwa's Karak district. Chief Justice Ahmed then ordered the temple be rebuilt and money for restoration work be taken from the attackers, who had caused "international embarrassment" to Pakistan

Minister: Vax for kids expected to reach next week

'No info yet on number of shots for K'taka'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

THE Union government will soon start supplying Covid vaccines for children and the state government is expecting their arrival in Karnataka next week, said Health Minister Dr K Sudhakar on Tuesday.

The state will vaccinate children based on priority as kids with vulnerabilities have already been identified through the Arogya Nandana programme.

"Covid cases have decreased and gradually, the academic year has begun. Parents are hesitant to send kids to school until their vaccination is done. The Central government has asked for 1 crore doses of Zydus Cadila's vaccines for children. How many doses will be sent to us is not known, but we are prepared for it," Sudhakar said, speaking at the 125th anniversary of Minto Eye Hospital in Bengaluru.

"Karnataka has already administered about 6.75 crore vaccine doses and we have now streamlined the entire process. The state has achieved coverage of 89 per cent in the first dose and 48 per cent in the second dose. People should not neglect taking the second dose within the prescribed time as both doses are necessary to get maximum protection against the virus. We must not let our guard down until the pandemic is completely eradicated," the minister said.

When the pandemic was at its peak, Victoria and Minto hospitals were reserved for Covid treatment. Now they have reopened for regular treatment. People can now avail necessary treatment without any hesitation, he said.

Against hiking medical education fee

Health Minister Dr K Sudhakar said that the state government is against increasing fees for medical education. Private medical colleges sought a fee hike at a recent meeting, but the government has decided against it. The medical colleges, however, have not yet agreed. "People have been affected financially by Covid and fee hikes will be a burden on parents. We will meet private medical college representatives and convince them once again," he said.

Blaze was waiting to happen at MP hospital

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bhopal

HOURS after a blaze at Bhopal's Kamla Nehru Hospital killed four infants, it emerged that the government-run medical facility did not even apply for a no-objection certificate from the fire department, despite getting multiple notices in recent months.

The fire broke out around 8.35 pm on Monday night in the paediatric ICU on the third floor, killing four newborns who were only 1-9 days old and had not even been named by their parents, reports said.

The hospital neither obtained a fire safety NOC in the last 15-20 years nor did it ever conduct a fire safety audit of the building, sources at the Bhopal Municipal Corporation told this newspaper. "Despite being served notice four to five times in last six months, the hospital management didn't get the fire safety NOC," said Bhopal Municipal Corporation Additional Commissioner (Fire Services) KS Parihar.

Parents carry children to safety after a fire at Kamla Nehru Hospital | PTI

The tragedy has thrown a spotlight on the gross neglect by most hospital administrators in Bhopal. More than two-thirds of the 500-600 big and small medical facilities in Bhopal haven't gotten a fire safety NOC, sources said.

At the Kamla Nehru Hospital, attendants who tried to douse the fire found to their dismay that the fire-safety equipment didn't work. Parihar, the BMC official, said the equipment was either outdated or non-functional. P12

BJP-Cong slugfest on Rafale pay-off

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @New Delhi

A day after a French media portal revealed how kickbacks were paid to an Indian middleman to sew up the Rafale deal during the UPA tenure, the BJP and the Congress indulged in name calling, with the former lampooning the INC as the 'I Need Commission' party and the latter demanding a Joint Parliamentary Committee (JPC) probe into the matter.

French portal Mediapart alleged that bogus invoices were raised to enable French aircraft maker Dassault Aviation pay at least 7.5 million euros between 2007 and 2012 in secret commissions to middleman Sushen Gupta to secure the fighter jet deal with India.

BJP spokesperson Sambit Patra hit out at Congress leader Rahul Gandhi, who has been spearheading the attack on the Modi government that eventually signed an inter-governmental pact for 36 Rafales. Accusing Rahul of spreading "canard, disinformation and lies", Patra asked him to respond to Mediapart's expose on the commissions Dassault paid to Gupta.

Rahul, however, remained combative, asking his party workers to fight the 'corrupt' Central government. "When the truth is with you in every step, what is there to worry about? My Congress colleagues, keep fighting like this... Don't stop, don't get tired, don't be afraid," he tweeted.

Congress leader K C Venugopal demanded a JPC probe into the scam. "If kickbacks have been given, then there has to be an inquiry. Why are you running away from the inquiry?" he said.

Citing the expose, the Congress pointed out that the CBI and the ED knew about the kickbacks in 2018. Why did they not act, the party asked, and accused the Centre of cover-up.

TECH SUMMIT TO TURN FOCUS ON BEYOND BENGALURU IT CLUSTERS

Event from November 17-19 to have separate sections for Mysuru, Mangaluru and Hubballi

PEARL MARIA D'SOUZA @Bengaluru

IT-BT Minister Dr C N Ashwath Narayan and Biocon Chairperson Kiran Mazumdar-Shaw arrive at the curtain-raiser for the 24th Bengaluru Tech Summit on Tuesday

IT firms from Beyond Bengaluru clusters — Mysuru, Mangaluru and Hubballi — will be highlighted at the 24th edition of Bengaluru Tech Summit (BTS), which will be held in a hybrid form in Bengaluru from November 17 to 19.

Many prominent personalities, from Nobel Laureate Venki (Venkatraman) Ramakrishnan to writer Chetan Bhagat, will be speakers at the summit. The specialities of the summit this year include — India-US conclave, India Innovation Alliance, Bengaluru Next Conclave, leadership conclave and startup conclave, along with a science gallery.

On the sidelines of a curtain-raiser for BTS2021 on Tuesday, Karnataka Digital Economy Mission (KDEM) Chairman BV Naidu told TNIE that the Elevate event will have separate sections for the three IT clusters and women entrepreneurs. Till now, 40 per cent of startups have been funded by Elevate and the percentage is only likely to increase. The government gives a grant of Rs 30-40 lakh to the firms selected, he added.

Clusters beyond Bengaluru are not even contributing 2 per cent of IT exports from Karnataka, while 98 per cent comes from Bengaluru, he said. "We want this to increase. By 2026, we want to ensure exports worth $5 billion from these clusters and employment to five lakh people. The target will be $10 billion and employment 10 lakh people in 10 years," he added.

In the last two months, KDEM initiated three BTS events at Mysuru, Mangaluru and Hubballi which were successful and brought a lot of focus on these clusters, he said.

"When Gulf Cooperation Council (GCC) companies came to India to set up centres, they created hubs in Bengaluru and other larger cities. We have now asked them to use the 'Spoke Shore strategy' to create spokes in the new emerging tech clusters. This is a win-win and sustainable for both GCC companies and Karnataka to spread the economy across," he added.

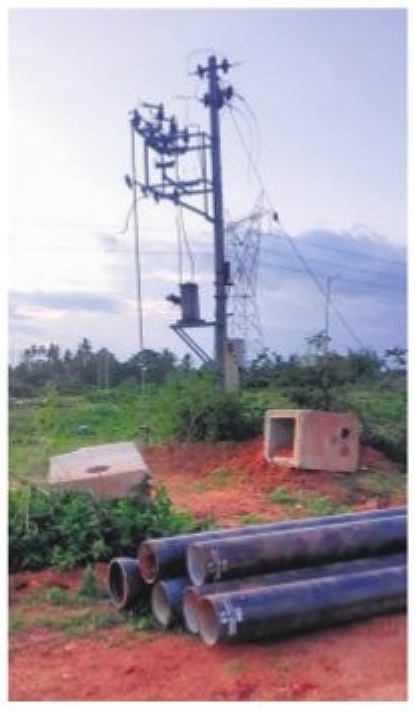
Aimed at GCC companies, a Cyber Security Centre of Excellence (CoE) is being created in Mysuru, FinTech CoE in Mangaluru and Edutech and Agritech CoEs in Hubballi, he said. When the visibility of these clusters increases, companies will realise that great talent is available there too and will be more willing to move, he reasoned.

A Future Digital Jobs programme has been launched for talent acquisition in these clusters. In the last four months, 4,000 people have been identified from these clusters and made available to multinational companies, he said.

After BTS2021, focussed events will be planned for the development of these clusters, including a GCC-IT event where 150 companies from GCC will be identified and the idea of a Spoke Shore will be floated.

"Many companies have started setting up centres in Hubballi, Mysuru and Mangaluru clusters. We have started getting dividends. Karnataka as a whole should be a happening destination," said IT-BT Minister Dr C N Ashwath Narayan.

Semiconductors have become a top priority and Karnataka is looking at either manufacturing or assembly units here, he said. Highlighting the shortage of semiconductors across the globe, he said 70 per cent of chip design happens in Bengaluru. "In the electronics sector, we are providing incentives and have come up with a new policy which is encouraging and the best in the country. Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai has made it clear that the government is willing to extend incentives to ensure that Karnataka is at the forefront of the electronics industry in the country," he added.



The BDA site at the Nadaprabhu Kempegowda Layout with the defunct transformer | EXPRESS

Ex-Army man lucky to get BDA site, but with an unwanted add-on: A transformer!

S LALITHA @Benglauru

AN ex-Army man, allotted a Bangalore Development Authority (BDA) site at Nadaprabhu Kempegowda Layout (NPKL), is now desperately pleading with the Authority to help him out. For, bang in the middle of his 30x40 sqft site is a dead transformer!

MN Kempanna was allotted the site (B4SF 2959) in November 2018 when the first batch of 5,000 sites in the layout went under the hammer. He got it in the first attempt because of the 10 per cent quota for ex-servicemen.

This former soldier of the Military Police unit had also made the full payment of Rs 23,25,000 for the site. Kempanna, 46, got to know only much later during a spot visit that a dead transformer was in the middle of the site. He told TNIE, "I had paid the money by pooling in all my bank savings and taking a big loan too. This site means a lot to me and it has been my big dream of building my own house here. I want to start the construction work now, but unless the transformer is removed, we cannot do anything."

Kempanna, who is from Tumakuru district, lives with his wife, a homemaker, daughter (11 years) and son (5) at a rented house at Annapoorneshwari Layout in Srikanta Kaval in Bengaluru.

He wrote to the electrical engineer at BDA on September 30 for removing it. "I have been told that it will be done shortly but more than a month has already passed," he said.

Dr Padma Prasad, Convenor of the Front, said, "Despite Kempanna repeatedly following it up with the BDA, the defunct transformer is not yet removed. Who should a common man approach to redress such grievances?"

HC raps civic body, demands report on illegal buildings

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

NOTING that it does not appreciate the BBMP's conduct, the High Court on Tuesday granted the civic body a last opportunity to submit the report on survey of illegal constructions in parks and playgrounds.

Taking serious note of non-compliance of the order to submit the report, a division bench of Chief Justice Ritu Raj Awasthi and Justice Sachin Shankar Magadum orally observed that "the prestige of the court cannot be compromised. To uphold the dignity of the court, this practice should be deprecated, if you people (Commissioner of BBMP) start taking courts very lightly. You people don't bother to comply with orders unless compelled to do so..."

The court was hearing the PIL filed by the HC Legal Services Committee on the failure of the respondents -- the State government, BBMP and Bengaluru Development Authority – to implement the provisions of the Karnataka Parks, Play Fields and Open Space (Preservation and Regulation) Act, 1985, and the Karnataka Government Parks (Preservation) Act, 1975.

Meanwhile, the counsel for BBMP submitted that the survey is complete and said it requires some time to submit the report. The court again orally observed, "Every day, we cannot tolerate it. We cannot permit illegal structures in parks or playgrounds. You may be scared of taking action against the high and mighty, but we are not... Let us start action. You advise your clients. There may be some high-handedness on the part of the high court if we pass orders to make you realise what wrong you have done. Therefore you start action, otherwise you would be in difficulty or your officers would be in difficulty," the court cautioned.

At the same time, the court also noted that the orders passed by the court were also not complied with by the state government. The case was adjourned to December 16.

SC to consider hearing plea on BBMP polls

New Delhi: The Supreme Court on Tuesday agreed to consider listing a plea of the Karnataka government against the High Court verdict asking the State Election Commission (SEC) to hold elections to 198 wards of the Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP). A bench og Chief Justice N V Ramana and Justices Surya Kant and Hima Kohli was informed that the five-year term of the civic body expired in September last year and there was an urgency as the poll process had been stayed. Following this, the state appointed a senior IAS officer as administrator of the civic body. PTI

PETER VIDAL

10th November: Sagittarian tendencies are perfect. In fact we're well within a powerful lunar phase, an indication that new projects could get off to a fine start. Astrologers the world over are persuading their business clients to sign new deals today. I say - look at the facts and decide for yourself!

ARIES
(Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
If others seem to want a greater degree of license and freedom, you deserve it as well. The only complication concerns your relationships with children, and you are still unsure where to draw the line. The best approach is to be firm but sympathetic and compassionate, but you probably know that, anyway!

TAURUS
(Apr. 21 - May 21)
You don't usually let the world see just how astute you can be. Yet recently you've come out with some very strange ideas which all of us can learn from. You are now ready to start dictating the pace at home. Begin by clearing up all muddles, misunderstandings and mess left over from the past.

GEMINI
(May 22 - June 21)
Professional influences remain strong and helpful, so you may, if you wish, allow work to take care of itself. It looks as if much of what happens over the coming two months will be based around endless meetings, interviews or conferences. Get your story ready.

CANCER
(June 22 - July 23)
You have endured partnership conflicts, restlessness and estrangements, but this is all part of the crazy dialogue with your sign, set up by the celestial awkward squad - Uranus, Neptune and Pluto. If you wish, you may now put emotional complications to one side.

LEO
(July 24 - Aug. 23)
Pull out all the stops and spend whatever is necessary to pay for your dreams. It doesn't matter whether you have one pound or dollar or a million, or whether you have any cash at all - in any currency! What's important is that you allow yourself a morale-boosting treat.

VIRGO
(Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
Planetary activity over the next few days allows you to wallow in a bout of sentiment and romance. Also, you'd do well to devote a great deal of attention to establishing just what makes other people tick. Once you've found out, then you'll be able to give them what they want.

LIBRA
(Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
You're facing the old dilemma - whether to compromise, or not! If you decide to insist that you get your own way socially, you must show other people that you have just cause. If you don't know what you're talking about, you'll soon be found out. This is no time to bluff!

SCORPIO
(Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
There is an increasing tendency towards silly accidents, a fact I point out solely so that you can take more care when handling priceless people or possessions. It's all down to carelessness, so the remedy is simple: watch out! And keep an eye open for an employer who is now on the warpath.

SAGITTARIUS
(Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
Business and pleasure can merge in mysterious ways. Complete all purchases of luxury items or investments in the arts or any other frivolous area. By the same token, agreements and arrangements affecting your working conditions must be finalised.

CAPRICORN
(Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
It's a fair enough day for making applications, attending interviews and handling discussions, and you can do well if you're selling ideas. On the romantic front, certain emotional complications should by now have died down or have come to seem strangely irrelevant.

AQUARIUS
(Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
There are so many awkward alignments in your horoscope that some of you may be feeling a little bewildered and hard done-by. Perhaps it's time to remind you that according to every tenet of your birth sign, you thrive on a challenge! In fact, there's nothing worse than having nothing to do!

PISCES
(Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
The world should generally be moving in your direction, today. This doesn't mean that you'll be able to get your own way; neither should it, for the universe has other ideas. It does show however, that you will be well fitted to cope with whatever life throws at you.

VAX STOCKS PILE-UP

Experts suggest quick use of near-expiry shots

Covishield to expire by Nov-end; Covaxin shelf life extended

CHETANA BELAGERE @Bengaluru

> Due to good vaccination coverage, there is low demand for vaccines. To prevent wastage, mainly Covishield vaccines expiring by November 30, they should be used up immediately
> Senior doctor

WITH the decline of the second wave, there is poor demand for vaccines in Karnataka, especially in private hospitals, leading a huge pile-up of vaccine stocks. At the recently held Technical Advisory Committee meeting, experts suggested that unused vaccines reaching expiry date, like November 30, need to be used immediately to prevent wastage. "Due to good vaccination coverage, there is low demand for vaccines. To prevent wastage, mainly Covishield vaccines expiring by November 30, they should be used up immediately," said a senior doctor.

Meanwhile, private hospitals heaved a sigh of relief after revalidation of the shelf life of Covaxin by another six months by manufacturer Bharat Biotech. "The shelf life of the vaccine has been extended from November 2021 to May 2022. This has eased the situation a bit and we expect approval for booster doses and children's vaccines will help us use up stocks," said Dr HM Prasanna, President of Private Hospitals And Nursing Homes' Association (PHANA).

Sources said TAC experts have given recommendations of how to use Covaxin. They have recommended that near-expiry vaccines are to be redistributed to centres where there is good attendance of people, so they can be used immediately. "Another recommendation is to return the near-expiry vaccines to the manufacturer after prior negotiation," sources said.

The experts have also recommended that the state health minister sends out a letter to the Union health minister, seeking to reduce the interval between two doses of Covishield to 4 to 6 weeks.

The state government will also urge the Central government to commence vaccination of children soon. "Children who are considered a priority, like those with comorbidities, can be vaccinated with Covaxin," a senior doctor said.

No masks for under-5 kids

Based on WHO's recommendation that children up to 5 years of age should not wear masks, TAC experts have advised that children in the 3-5 year age group, going to Anganwadis and schools to attend LKG & UKG classes for a few hours a day, need not use masks. Experts said ensuring compliance in this age group will be difficult. Also, prolonged use of face masks may affect their general health, growth and development.
Considering the fact that the infection is generally mild and self-limiting, unlike in the elderly and older age groups, the TAC has recommended that children in the LKG, UKG and Anganwadis need not wear masks.

New record? 222 fibroids removed from 34-year-old

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

SAKRA World Hospital removed a staggering 222 uterine fibroids from a 34-year-old woman. The hospital may have broken a record in most fibroids removed, with Guinness World Records last recording a total of 186 removed from a woman in Egypt in 2016.

Ritika Acharya, a journalist and former TV anchor, approached the hospital in September. She was anaemic, and had been suffering from fatigue and breathing problems for close to two years. In addition to a stomach the size of a seven or eight-month pregnant woman. "There were people all around me asking if I was pregnant, and it really affected how I felt about myself," Acharya said at a press conference on Tuesday.

The surgery, spanning almost five hours, was successful in removing the benign growths from Acharya's uterus, weighing about 2.5kg. The surgery was headed by Dr Shanthala Thuppanna, a senior consultant, and head of the obstetrics and gynaecology department at Sakra. "It's a very common problem affecting numerous women, and doesn't require surgery but in her case, we found a cauliflower-like growth on the walls of her uterus and had to remove it," she told the media.

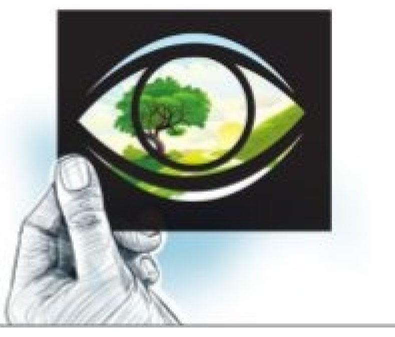
Uterine fibroids are a common condition in women of reproductive age, explained Thuppanna. They're usually non-cancerous growths on the walls of the uterus. While there haven't been any concrete causes for the condition, increased hormone levels, family history and race might affect its likelihood, she said. Complications could result in anaemia, clotting, fatigue, pressure on the organs due to the size of the growths, and a bulging stomach. However, Thuppanna said that though the problem was common, it was unlikely to progress far in most afflicted women.

"I was hesitant to go to hospital because of the pandemic scare," said Acharya, "I wasn't able to do any bending exercises though I led a pretty active lifestyle. It took me two years to actually consult a doctor." Thuppanna mentioned that this was common with many women coming in only after the problem becomes severe. "We're now seeing a large influx of people as they feel safer, and were hesitant due to Covid-19," she said.

Acharya spoke about her recovery. "I'm still recovering from the mental stress of the fibroids in my body, but otherwise I feel great. I don't know if I've broken a Guinness World Record, but it's not for something I'm very proud of."

Eye donation must become people's movement: Sudhakar

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru



HEALTH Minister Dr K Sudhakar on Tuesday said eye donation should become a people's movement. "Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai has pledged to donate his organs, while last year, I pledged to donate my eyes," he added.

"Eye donation awareness is important to combat blindness. Three to four crore people in the country suffer from blindness. The eyes of the deceased should not be wasted as they can give light to many blind people. With technology, Kannada actor Puneeth Rajkumar's eyes have gone to four people," he said.

Minto Hospital was started by the vision of Krishnaraja Wadiyar IV, 125 years ago and it has grown into a prestigious organisation. About 500-800 people come to the OPD every day and about 10,000 eye surgeries are carried out every year, the minister said.

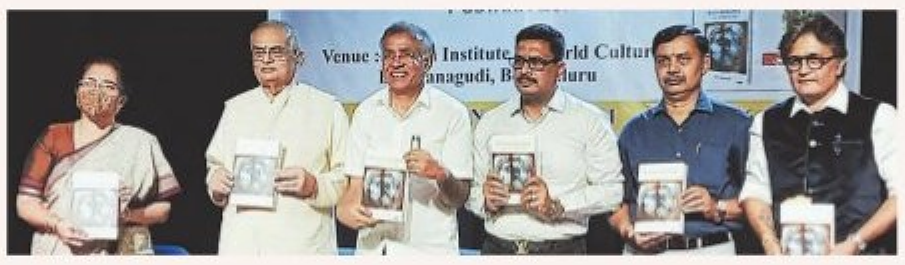
RETAINING BALANCE
'AN ORIGINAL CONTRIBUTION TO INDIAN POLITICAL ECONOMIC THOUGHT'



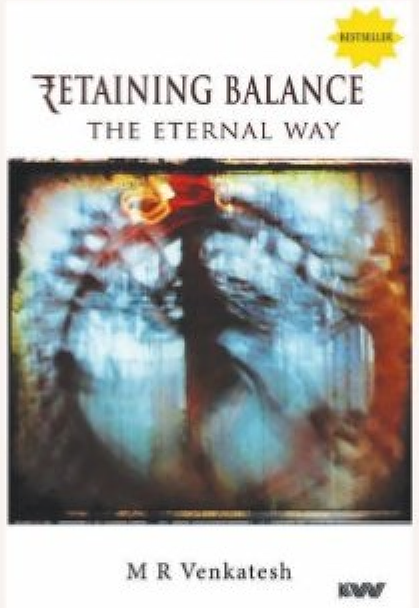
Retaining Balance – The Eternal Way is a fascinating and ambitious new work of Chartered Accountant turned Advocate M R Venkatesh. It seeks to question the root assumptions governing the discipline of modern economics and seeks to explain why economies across continents are constantly in a state of boil. This work critically analyses the prevalent conundrum of policy framers who place too much reliance on the individual, in the process ignoring traditional institutions of family, society and community. Rampant individualism, in turn according to Venkatesh, results in excesses leading to the proliferation of either a corrosive state, or an extortionist market.

Venkatesh calls family as a missing middle in the study of modern economics. Among the several competing schools of economic thought — Classical, Marxist, Keynesian or the Chicago school, the preoccupation is often with markets, labour or welfare and redistribution, thereby curiously and safely staying away from the civilisational or cultural prisms to economic analysis. But in a first, in a masterly and innovative approach to the philosophy of economic thought with a uniquely Indian perspective, the author brilliantly weaves to his readers these missing cogs in the wheel — family, culture and civilization to the study of economics. As a keen student of both economics and politics, Venkatesh skilfully integrates the two to literally "Retain Balance" in his analysis in a magisterial manner.

Retaining Balance therefore argues that the institution of family, rooted to civilisational restraints, alone can deal with individual excesses and the resultant fallout. Importantly, it seeks to introduce the grand idea of individual duties along with the fundamental rights to balance the skew in our constitutional arrangements. Using this and related underlying themes, Venkatesh explores a wide range of fundamental issues in this book. At the risk of brevity, it may be said that he approaches the challenges to society in general and economics in particular from a civilisational and cultural standpoint and makes a convincing argument that the roots of the present, jumbled and rudderless approach to our constitutional arrangement in the Christian theology of a "broken self."

In contrast, Venkatesh points out that our Indic legacy emphasises citizens' duties whereas our British-inspired Constitution is predicated on the Christian/Hobbesian ideas of original sin and the need for a Leviathan state to discipline fundamentally flawed humans. The consequence is an ultra-interventionist state and judiciary, with the latter frequently using Christian arguments to justify its interference in areas that are far outside its remit even in other democracies.

In conclusion, Venkatesh argues that because of the economic domination of the West, their cultural mores including their Christian upbringing, dominates global thoughts. In the process he succinctly points out how older civilisations like India often find western economic theory in conflict with their civilisation. This book seeks to explore economic thought as well as constitutional law from the cultural and family point of view.



M.R.Venkatesh

Summarising the book noted author and researcher, Dr Ratan Sarda says, "Retaining Balance is an original contribution to Indian political economic thought." Of course, on first read "Retaining Balance" comes across as provocative, almost in-your-face work. But when you dig into it you realise it is not trying to incite, but to provide insight. One of those rare books that transitions across genres (economics, theology, anthropology, and more) smoothly and seamlessly. Retaining Balance is not a work where you will find right answers to your questions on economics and constitutional law, but is a book that brings forth certain inconvenient questions - a powerful book that forces you to question your assumptions on economics and constitutional law!

The Book was launched by senior BJP leader Muralidhar Rao, in Hyderabad on 22nd October 2021; by Nitin Karmalkar Vice-Chancellor, Savitribai Phule Pune University in Pune on 30th October 2021; and by senior RSS leader V Nagaraj in Bengaluru on 2nd November 2021. The book has been well received in the intellectual, academic and political circles.

Simplicity, dogged determination of barefoot warriors win hearts

(Left) Tulasi Gowda, who received the Padma Shri for her contribution to the protection of environment, along with her family; Dakshina Kannada Deputy Commissioner Dr Rajendra KV felicitates Harekala Hajabba, who received the fourth highest civilian honour for his contribution to education, on Tuesday | EXPRESS

AMONG all achievers who received Padma awards on Monday, two Kannadigas – Harekala Hajabba and Tulasi Gowda — stood out from a galaxy of people for their simplicity. Draped in traditional and rustic attire, the duo receiving the award barefoot was an instant hit on social media and became talk of the town, at least back home in the state.

Both had not thought of any special attire for the big event. Hajabba's attire attracted a lot of strange looks at the lobby when he stepped into the Ashoka Hotel in Delhi, where he was put up, and his attendant had to clarify who he was. The 69-year-old had in fact bought a new pair of sandals for the award ceremony, but when his name was called to receive the award, he instinctively left his footwear as he walked towards the President with folded hands.

Tulasi Gowda had stopped wearing footwear long ago as she does not feel comfortable wearing them while moving in the forests. The Delhi visit has left both in a state of awe as they got an opportunity to meet Prime Minister Narendra Modi and others personally, but they found it very difficult to adjust to the luxury and opulence of the five-star hotel or the Rashpathi Bhavan.

On an earlier occasion, Hajabba was in Dubai for a felicitation programme and, on his return to Mangaluru, he told his close associates that he did not bathe for two days as he did not want to dirty the posh bathroom of the hotel room.

Both have received many awards, but there has been no change in their quality of life and they seem not to care much about it either. When a travel agency came up with an offer to sponsor his Umrah trip, Hajabba refused it stating that he has a lot of domestic responsibilities to complete without which he cannot go on the pilgrimage.

The 69-year-old, who strived to build a school in his village by toiling under hot sun, is still to marry off his two daughters and a son. But he hides his personal problems and his aim now is to add a PU college to the school in Newpadpu. That was the only request he made to Union Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman when he met her in Delhi.

Tulasi, despite living in Honnali for decades, does not even have a house of her own. She stays on forest land and is now seeking regularisation of the property. She stays in this house with her son and four grandchildren and a great grandchild. The 77-year-old wants the government to offer some good jobs to her grandchildren. Having lost her father at the age of two and having begun to work as a labourer at a young age, she has come up the hard way in life even as she went about nurturing lakhs of trees.

According to Dr R Indira, a retired sociology professor of Mysore University, there are two takeaways from the conferring of the Padma awards to Hajabba and Tulasi and the public attention it has received. "Their work is recognised with awards now. But whether their traditional knowledge or work will be transferred to the next generation or not and what society's role will be in ensuring it is important. We should also see whether the awards have brought any qualitative change in their life," she pointed out.

She said the instead of just sharing their videos on social media, people should make honest attempts to inculcate their good deeds and simplicity.

Injured finger

Three days prior to his Delhi visit, Hajabba had a cut in his finger while slicing tender coconuts for the health staff who had visited his house to take samples for an RT-PCR test. They took him to a hospital nearby and administered first aid. "With the same bandage on my finger, I received the award," he said, showing his finger to Dakshina Kannada DC K V Rajendra when the latter felicitated him on Tuesday.

'Prez looked tired, so I warded off evil spirits'

TRANSGENDER folk artist and president of the Karnataka Janapada Academy, Matha Manjamma Jogati, surprised everyone at Rashtrapati Bhavan by giving traditional blessings to President Ram Nath Kovind and warding off evil spirits while receiving her Padma Shri award on Tuesday.

Manjamma (57) said she was elated to receive the award and also excited about her first flight. "The award must motivate transgenders and society must also rethink the way they treat us. The award is for all those who have supported me and I am very happy to receive it," Manjamma told TNIE.

"When I received the invitation for the award ceremony, I had decided that I would wear the traditional Ilkal saree for the event. During the function, I observed that President Ram Nath Kovind looked tired. Hence, I decided to do the ritual of warding off evil spirits as done traditionally," the artist said. Manjamma is the second transgender to receive a Padma award. Bharatnatyam dancer Narthaki Nataraj from Tamil Nadu was the first to be presented the award in 2019.

Manjamma Jogati hails from Mariyammana Halli village in Hosapete taluk and has been striving hard to bring change in the lives of Jogatis, her fellow transgenders, in parts of Kalyana Karnataka. She is responsible for saving the traditional Jogati dance form and is looking to set up an academy to train transgenders in the traditional art which could help them lead a dignified life. "I have requested the government several times and I have been assured of help," she added.

MLC POLLS FOR 25 SEATS ON DEC 10

Next big test for Bommai after Assembly bypolls; Major political parties start groundwork

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

ELECTIONS to the Legislative Council for 25 seats from 20 local authorities constituencies in Karnataka will be held on December 10.

With the Election Commission of India (ECI) announcing the schedule, the state is set to witness hectic political activity for the next four weeks. The Bharatiya Janata Party, Congress and Janata Dal (Secular) will make all-out efforts to improve their numbers in the 75-member council. Currently, the BJP is the single largest party with 32 MLCs, followed by Congress (29) and JDS (12).

Notification for the biennial elections due to the retirement of members will be issued on November 16.

The last date for filing nominations is November 23. While polling will be held on December 10, counting of votes will take place on December 14.

The term of 25 MLCs, including Social Welfare Minister Kota Srinivas Poojary and Opposition Leader in the Council SR Patil, will end on January 5, 2022. The model code of conduct will come into force with immediate effect in the constituencies, read a statement from the Election Commission of India.

All three major political parties have already started groundwork for the council polls and are in the process of finalising candidates.

The ruling BJP, which now requires the JDS' support in the Upper House to get Bills passed, will be looking to consolidate its position.

BJP spokesperson Ganesh Karnik said on Tuesday that senior leaders discussed measures to strengthen the organisation and a strategy to win the maximum number of MLC seats.

The primary Opposition party, the Congress, too, is confident of retaining its seats as 14 of the 25 MLCs whose tenure ends on January 5, 2022, are from the party.

Karnataka Pradesh Congress Committee (KPCC) president DK Shivakumar and former CM Siddaramaiah have held several rounds of meetings with party leaders to discuss their poll strategy. The Congress has invited applications from the aspirants, and a list of candidates is likely to be sent to central leaders for approval.

"We hope to improve our tally. Panchayat members are unhappy with the government as they are not getting funds to take up development works," said KPCC working president Saleem Ahmed.

Another KPCC working president Eshwar Khandre said price rise, unemployment, maladministration and local issues will be taken up in the elections, in which members of local bodies will elect MLCs.

Newly elected MLCs can't attend session

NAUSHAD BIJAPUR @ Belagavi

THE new members of the Legislative Council, who will be elected from 20 local body constituencies across the state, in all likelihood, will not be able to attend the forthcoming winter session of the legislature at Belagavi's Suvarna Vidhana Soudha which is likely to begin from December 13. The term of the incumbent MLCs from these constituencies will end only on January 4.

While polling will be held on December 10, the results will be out on December 14. However, the winter session is tentatively scheduled to be held in Belagavi from December 13 to 24.

Speaking to The New Indian Express, Legislative Council Chairman Basavaraj Horatti said that the MLCs to be elected newly from all the 20 constituencies will have to take oath only on January 5, a day after the term of the sitting MLCs ends. As a result, the newly elected MLCs will not attend the session and only the present MLCs will participate in the proceedings.

However, many of the sitting MLCs, who are in the fray, are likely to attend the winter session whether or not they win or lose the election, sources said, adding that many of them are expected to contest again. Despite their victory as MLCs on December 14, none of the winners, except for those retaining their seats, will be able to make it to the winter session if it is held as per the tentative schedule.

Meanwhile, the State Government is yet to take a final call on the dates for the winter session in Belagavi, but it is expected to be wound up before the end of December.

Many leaders, including Horatti, have appealed to the government to hold the session in November itself. But that seems very unlikely.

CM will visit Delhi today to discuss MLC polls, bypoll results

Former chief minister BS Yediyurappa and Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai at the Bharatiya Janata Party core committee meeting in Bengaluru on Tuesday

BENGALURU: Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai will be travelling to New Delhi on Wednesday where he is expected to meet Union Ministers and the BJP central leaders. This will be his first visit to Delhi after the October 30 bypolls to Hanagal and Sindagi and after completing 100 days as CM last week. He is expected to meet party leaders and submit a report on the party's performance in the bypolls in which the BJP managed to win Sindagi by a big margin, but lost Hanagal--- located in CM's home district Haveri. Now with the announcement of the MLC elections, Bommai is also likely to discuss the party's strategy for the elections and names of shortlisted candidates and seek the top brass' approval. Bommai will return to Bengaluru on Thursday. Political developments in the state, including the Bitcoin row, are also likely to be discussed. This will be his fifth visit to Delhi since he took over as CM on July 26. ENS

BJP TO FINALISE CANDIDATES IN TWO DAYS, SAYS BOMMAI

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE Karnataka Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) will announce its candidate list for the upcoming MLC polls scheduled to be held on December 10, Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai said.

After attending the BJP core committee meeting on Tuesday, Bommai told reporters that the party had discussed MLC elections. "We collected details from all districts. We have two to three names for each constituency… and a few names came up at the meeting too. We will discuss and consult local leaders, and send a list to the Parliamentary Committee in Delhi, which will finalise the names in two days,'' he said.

The meeting was attended by BJP State in-charge Arun Singh, former chief minister BS Yediyurappa, MLAs CT Ravi and Jagadish Shettar and others. Bommai said the local MLAs and MPs will also discuss the candidates' selection with BJP State President Nalin Kumar Kateel. Asked about the BJP giving tickets to leaders from other parties, Bommai said this was discussed but nothing was finalised.

Bommai said the meeting also discussed the Jan Swaraj Yatra, which will be conducted across the state by four teams, each headed by Yediyurappa, Shettar, KS Eshwarappa and Kateel.

Minister Eshwarappa, who was part of the committee, said they had finalised names for 24 constituencies, which they are sending to Delhi for final approval. "Most of the sitting MLCs, including minister Kota Srinivas Poojary, MK Pranesh, Sunil Subramani and others will be given tickets. As the BJP did well in Gram Panchayat elections, there is a demand for BJP in the coming elections," he said.

BJP spokesperson Capt Ganesh Karnik had earlier in the day attended the BJP office-bearers meeting, and said they are working to win a maximum of the 25 seats.

We collected details from all districts. We have two to three names for each constituency… and a few names came up at the meeting too. We will discuss and consult local leaders, and send a list to the Parliamentary Committee in Delhi, which will finalise the names in two days

Bommai directed the officials to identify suitable land for construction of Kannada Bhavan and prepare a Detailed Project Report for the same. He also directed the officials to allocate Rs 10 crore for the project. Members of Goa Kannada Sangha welcomed the state government's decision to provide grants for construction of Kannada Bhavan in Goa.

'K'taka panchayat system a model for other states'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

UNION Minister of State for Panchayati Raj, Kapil Moreshwar Patil, on Tuesday praised the Karnataka Panchayat Raj system saying that several of its initiatives like solid waste management and generation of solar power are a model for other states to emulate.

Speaking to reporters here, Patil said, "I am impressed with the facilities in the panchayats in Karnataka. Henceforth, I will tell the local panchayat chairpersons and members in other states to visit Karnataka and learn about several initiatives like waste and streetlight management, sewage treatment and the newly launched digital library programme implemented in the panchayats in Karnataka," he said.

Patil said Karnataka was the seventh state he was visiting after assuming charge as minister.

On funds for panchayats, Patil said the Union Government has allocated Rs 2.5 lakh crore in this year's budget of which Karnataka has received Rs 11,000 crore. "Also, the state has got Rs 3,500 crore under the 15th Finance Commission. If needed, we are ready to extend more financial support to Karnataka," the minister elaborated.

Patil said it is the dream of Prime Minister Narendra Modi to make India an open defecation-free country. "Karnataka, despite hurdles, has achieved 80% of the target and I am confident it will achieve better results in the coming days,'' the minister added.

Cong govt didn't delay Mekedatu DPR: Siddu

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Mysuru

JDS MLA GT Devegowda and Congress leader Siddaramaiah share the stage during the inauguration of the Ambedkar Bhavan at Hinkal in Mysuru on Tuesday | EXPRESS

OPPOSITION leader in the Assembly, Siddaramaiah, on Tuesday said the Congress plans to take out a padayatra from Mekedatu to Bengaluru to build pressure on the State Government to start work on the water project across the Cauvery. The Congress has decided to take out a padayatra from the Mekedatu project site in Kanakapura taluk to Bengaluru, a distance of 110 km, in December demanding speedy execution of the project.

Addressing the media here, Siddaramaiah said that though the Detailed Project Report (DPR) had been prepared by the earlier Congress government, the present BJP government in the state is delaying its execution. Referring to Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai accusing the Congress of delaying the preparation of DPR, the former CM said, "There is no logic behind the allegations. The government has not shown political will to start work on the project. We want the government to commence the work at the earliest." Clarifying that there is no legal hurdle to realise the project, except for political interference, he said the State Government should get the Centre's nod at the earliest as there is no provision in the law for Tamil Nadu to oppose it.

On the Bitcoin scam, Siddaramaiah said the government should start an investigation and wondered what has stopped it from doing so. "The government is asking me for evidence… it is the duty of the investigating officers to look into it. If necessary, I will provide evidence to the court. I am collecting the necessary documents to raise the issue in the forthcoming winter session of the legislatureve," he added.

Referring to the controversy over his remarks on Dalits, he reiterated that the saffron party and the RSS had misrepresented his speech to instigate the community and create confusion. "I will happy if the Congress high command picks a Dalit to be the CM of Karnataka. A Dalit can become CM only in the Congress, as evident in four-five states," he said. Claiming that he had come out with many welfare programmes to protect the Constitutional rights of Dalits and for their economic empowerment, he said Dalits are not just restricted to SCs. "I am also a Dalit. All those who are deprived of opportunities are Dalits," he added. "Many people advised me against bringing legislation on reservation in promotion for Dalits. But our government was determined and we even took the risk of overstepping the Apex Court's observations," he noted.

RIVALS SHARE STAGE

Political rivals Siddaramaiah and disgruntled JDS MLA G T Devegowda shared the stage for the first time at the inauguration of the Ambedkar Bhavan at Hinkal on the outskirts of the city and even shared some light moments. Devegowda had defeated Siddaramaiah in the Chamundeshwari segment in the 2018 Assembly elections. "I will share the stage with him whether he joins the Congress or not. I have also unofficially extended an invitation to Gubbi JDS MLA Srinivas to join the Congress," Siddaramaiah said.

Submit report on CD scandal: HC to SIT

Report needs to be given to Additional Commissioner of Police for appropriate orders

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru:

THE Karnataka High Court on Tuesday directed the Special Investigation Team (SIT) to place the report on the CD scandal, allegedly involving former BJP minister Ramesh Jarkiholi, before Additional Commissioner of Police Soumendu Mukherjee, who is heading the team, to pass appropriate orders and later submit it to the court in a sealed cover.

A division bench of Chief Justice Ritu Raj Awasthi and Justice Sachin Shankar Magadum passed the order after senior advocate Indira Jaising, representing the victim, pointed out that the report prepared by ACP MC Kavitha, the investigating officer in the absence of Mukherjee, was on leave for three months.

"The report submitted in the sealed cover has been opened. The said report has been perused. We are of the considered view that once the SIT was constituted, headed by Soumendu Mukherjee, the report prepared by Kavitha should have been placed before him and approved by him. Let this report be submitted before him for appropriate orders. Thereafter, it should be submitted before the court in a sealed cover on November 29, 2021, the next date of hearing," the court stated in the order, after hearing a batch of petitions on the issue.

When the court asked the SIT whether its chief had signed the report, it was informed that it was not signed. Earlier, Indira Jaising had argued that the very constitution of the committee is bad in law and SIT is going to file a closure report. The contents of the report submitted to court in a sealed cover were leaked to the media, which is not acceptable as the matter is subjudice.

K'taka tops list of bizmen's suicides in 2020

KARTHIK K K @Mysuru

CALL it the fallout of the lockdowns or financial crisis triggered by the Covid pandemic, Karnataka reported the highest suicides of businessmen in the country in 2020.

According to the latest data released by the National Crime Records Bureau (NCRB), the state reported 1,772 deaths of businessmen, including vendors, tradesmen and other business owners last year, contributing around 15 per cent to the total number of suicides of businessmen in the country.

With the falling sales after the pandemic and subsequent lockdowns during 2020, many traders, vendors and micro, small and medium enterprise owners have taken the extreme step due to financial distress.

The statistics revealed that 592 vendors, 968 tradesmen and 212 businessmen running various other businesses committed suicide accounting for over 1,772 deaths, of which 1,699 were men and 73 women.

In 2019, the state reported 875 deaths of businessmen, which included 175 vendors, 204 tradesmen and 496 running other businesses. A comparison between the two years reveals a jump of over 103 per cent in suicides among the business community proving that Covid impacted this sector badly and failed to create a profitable business model for many.

The NCRB data revealed that Karnataka, which stood in the third place in total number of suicides from the business community in the country in 2019, climbed to the top position in 2020.

How much more can Chennai take? Another spell today

Officials can't guarantee that stormwater drains will prevent flooding

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Chennai

WITH several parts of Chennai still underwater, the city braces itself for another spell of rainfall on Wednesday. It appears that the years of effort and crores of rupees spent to tackle intense rainfall have fallen far short in delivering the desired outcome.

The city's integrated stormwater drains (SWD) are designed to carry a maximum of 68 mm/hour of rainfall. When questioned why the water stagnates despite this high capacity, officials say, no matter the capacity of the drain, water will not drain into disposal points if the waterbodies are already at a high level.

"Even if all the stormwater drain projects are complete, we cannot say for sure that there won't be waterlogging when there is excess rainfall," said a corporation official.

Official sources say that once there is excessive rain, the authorities can't do much other than pump out water. The flat terrain of the city makes it naturally flood-prone. However, experts argue that the encroachment of waterbodies has worsened theses affairs.

S Thirunavukkarasu, a retired assistant chief engineer of the Public Works Department, said, "Many waterbodies in North Chennai have disappeared. These lakes would have stored the rainwater resulting in minimum flooding. Besides, the desilting of existing lakes does not happen."

Early this year, the Madras High Court had pointed out the issue of encroachments on lakes and asked the State government to obtain and create a catalog of satellite images of waterbodies from taluk to State-level, and geo-reference it and preserve.

RFO files complaint against two for fake tiger sighting pics

BOSKY KHANNA @Bengaluru

FOREST officials have decided to put an end to the commonly adopted gimmick of tiger or leopard sighting to draw tourists to home stays and resorts on forest fringes.

In Chikkamagaluru, Range Forest Officer Swathi L on Tuesday filed a complaint against a resort owner and people circulating a message on social media since late Monday night, of two tiger sightings on Golf Club Road in Chikkamagaluru. The CEN police of Chikkamagaluru registered a non-cognisable report. Following this, forest officials picked up two men, Syed Masood and Sameer Husain, for inquiry.

Police and forest officials have also traced Mustaffa, from Bengaluru, who circulated the messages. Other details are being traced, police said.

Experts and conservationists said this is not the first time such fake videos and photos are being circulated by home stay and resort owners. "They do this to draw tourists and gain traction on social media. But it is the first time the RFO has acted and got all details deleted immediately. The photo is of two tigers in Tadoba, and was shot in 2019 by a senior IFS officer."

Last year, a local associated with home stays and resorts had spread a similar rumour of sighting a tiger wandering near the road. The forest department and police had made him issue a written public apology.

Swathi told TNIE that Syed and Sameer were questioned and made to delete the photos and videos. The complaint was registered as people were panicking. Chikkamagaluru is a potential tiger habitat, but the area quoted has no trace of tigers. Conservationists said there is stiff competition to grab tourists.

Biodiversity Board opposes BT cotton, corn

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

THE Karnataka Biodiversity Board submitted a letter and memorandum to the state government, seeking denial of permission for cultivation of BT cotton and BT corn.

It has strongly condemned the cultivation of genetically modified crops, citing the effect on health of animals and contamination of soil, and also affecting endemic species.

Board Chairman Ananth Hegde Ashisara handed over the memorandum and letter to Chief Secretary P Ravi Kumar on Tuesday, and said the task of obtaining public opinion on BTCotton and BTCorn was given to the Board. Following discussions and feedback from progressive and traditional farmers, environmentalists and organisations working with farmers and cattle, it was found that genetically modified crops are harmful.

The Board also stated that growing BTCotton in some patches has had a severe impact on traditional cotton varieties. Farmers have also pointed out that usage of chemical fertilisers for such species has a devastating impact on the ecology and animal health.

POLICE SEARCH FOR DRUGS LEAVES SLUM DWELLERS ANXIOUS

DONITA JOSE @Hyderabad

"THEY never showed us any warrant before checking our homes. As they are police and as we know we haven't done anything wrong we allowed them inside" says Vijay M, a resident of the Chandraiah and Laxmaiah huts located in Malakpet on the banks of Musi River. His house was one amongst 500 homes that were checked as part of the recent Cordon and Search special drive by Hyderabad police to find contraband and drugs. While these search operations have become common for the lower income communities in the city, the timing of these checks in these slums has left the residents concerned.

"In October there were floods and we lost all our belongings. Despite that we rebuilt our homes, but now, we hear that Tehsildar's office is trying to move us to homes allotted for a few families at Munganoor Rajiv Gruha Kalpa. But that is around 20kms away with no proper water supply as well and only a few families were allotted those," adds Anji, another resident.

This anxiety about not being given promised homes, coupled with recent visits of the police have added to the confusion on eviction.

Meanwhile, the local police contradicted the claims, saying they did not enter homes.

DIWALI SALES SHOW CONSUMERS STILL SLOW ON SPENDS

Festival buying, which begins around the start of Navratri and ends soon after Diwali, was seen as a litmus test of whether the consumer was back and if retail sales were on the upswing. The signals have been mixed, but overall the mass consumer still seems to be holding back. The Confederation of All India Traders sounded an optimistic note claiming retail buying during the festive season has exceeded ₹1.25 lakh crore. But individual consumer sectors had a different story to tell. Godrej Appliances said the bounce-back from last Diwali was 14% higher sales, but still below Covid times. Maruti Suzuki, the largest seller, reported it sold about 1.5 lakh units, when in previous years the average was around 1.8 lakh units. E-commerce players like Amazon and Flipkart however bucked the trend with a robust 23% growth.

Anecdotal reporting meanwhile showed the driver behind the festival sales were the bottled-up rich and elite, who loosened their purse strings. They had the liquidity to buy high-end gadgets and jewellery. However, big retailers like Vijay Sales said they earned good value from expensive products like frost-free refrigerators. But they conceded their volumes were flat in the mass category of ordinary kitchenware and basic electricals.

Various micro and macro reasons can be ascribed to the less-than-expected Diwali boom. In Mumbai, on the auspicious buying day of Dhanteras, passenger car sales fell 12% and two-wheelers 32% compared to last year. Buyers said the damper was the continuous rise in fuel prices over the last two-three months. On the other hand, Hyundai and other carmakers said though they had a big backlog of demand for Diwali-time delivery, they could not meet it mainly due to shortage of microchips and other components. Another speed breaker has been the high inflationary pressure of rising component and transport costs. A report by private consultancy IHS Markit said Indian firms have been worried about rising input costs, which has led to subdued business confidence. While some sectors have opened up, the average consumer is still wary, and much more will have to be done to restore confidence to boost sales.

AS WE KEEP OPENING UP, NEED TO STAY ALERT

The Covid-19 pandemic seems to be charting a curious course, not just in India but across the world. As the Delta variant fuels a surge in Europe as well as Asia, even threatening to reach the January high again, there is talk of the pandemic entering an endemic stage in about a year. There are experts who say that nations with higher vaccination rates as well as natural immunity from as much high infections may be the first to come out of the pandemic. Countries such as the US, UK, Portugal and India figure in that list. Interestingly, the WHO's Europe chief was extremely concerned last week over the rising fatalities in that continent and warned that should the trajectory remain unchanged, the region could add another half a million deaths by February next year. In addition, alarms are being raised due to the fact that countries are lifting even face-mask protocols. At the same time, there is a view that the world could get a grip on the virus by the end of 2022 if the pace of vaccination continues because by then, about 70% of the population would be inoculated. With new antiviral drugs being cleared in the UK as well as the US, hopes for getting further control over the outbreak would be strengthened.

In India, the scenario is not any different. The festive season has been celebrated with overwhelming gusto and with very little restrictions in place. But now, there is a chance of a third wave coming. Expert agencies have raised the red flag that the AY.4.2 variant could be the reason behind the third wave, but for now, there is little scientific data to solidly back the claim. With the transmission ebbing, many states have opened up schools. With the calls for further relaxations, others are following suit. Curiously, a recent study by ICMR-RMRC, Bhubaneswar, suggests that children are unlikely to be prone to severity while another report suggests the elderly, despite vaccination, may remain as vulnerable as they always were. This is a very uncertain stage in the pandemic and it would only be prudent to maintain alertness, push the vaccination rate and not let go of the basic health protocols that have become a part of our daily lives.

The impact of colonialist thinking was deep-rooted. But the New India is drawing confidence from its philosophy, traditional knowledge and culture

INDIA HAS STARTED TO ASSERT ITS SOFT POWER

Like most festivals in India, Diwali celebrations too have a deeper philosophical meaning. What are generally referred to as rituals also have a deeper insightful message inherent to them. However, the quintessential symbol of Diwali is the traditional earthen lamp. And the lamp is all about enlightenment. It is the light of knowledge that ends the darkness of ignorance and tells us how to move ahead, which path to take and the direction.

Interestingly, this lamp has acquired such a prominent position in our imagery that several government and non-government organisations have used it as an icon and made it a part of their emblem. In the context of how India is often perceived globally, a lamp that ends the darkness of ignorance has some special significance as we are one of the countries difficult to understand. In the past, our governments, intelligentsia, media and even civil society allowed several misunderstandings about India to persist. Our collective inertia and at times ignorance about our own culture are to blame for this. Many intellectuals, while participating in activities abroad, take pleasure in assailing their own country simply to showcase their so-called objectivity. This habit of criticising Indian culture and traditions was encouraged by many global think tanks and internationally renowned universities to a great extent. Scores of examples could be given as to how only so-called 'progressives' were chosen for many established international laurels. Juries of international film festivals too fell into this trap and decorated mostly those interested in showing only misery and poverty in India.

Sadly, the impact of colonialist thinking is so deep-rooted that we downgrade our own selves and as Ananda Coomaraswamy once said, many of us have become strangers in our land. As early as in the beginning of the 20th century, Coomaraswamy wrote, "Speak to the ordinary graduate of an Indian university ... of the ideals of the Mahabharata, he will hasten to display his knowledge of Shakespeare; talk to him of religious philosophy, you find that he is an atheist of the crude type common in Europe a generation ago, and that not only he has no religion but is as lacking in philosophy as the average Englishman; talk to him of Indian music—he will produce a gramophone or a harmonium and inflict upon you one or both; talk to him of Indian dress or jewellery, he will tell you that they are uncivilised and barbaric; talk to him of Indian art, it is news to him that such a thing exists; ask him to translate for you a letter in his own mother-tongue, he does not know it. He is indeed a stranger in his own land!" (Modern Review, Calcutta, October 1908).

Unfortunately, we haven't been able to free ourselves from this perverse habit of self-denigration, but today things are changing for the better. We are confidently talking of atmanirbharta and the nation is made to realise its own innate strength, the strength of atma or self. Indigenous knowledge and traditional wisdom are now getting due prominence. Be it COP26 or the UN General Assembly, the prime minister himself is speaking in Hindi and giving the message to not get enamoured by the ability to talk in English. Like our mother, we have to respect mother tongues too. Yoga and ayurveda are now being officially recognised globally. With the model of Ram Mandir getting a place of prominence at the India pavilion of Dubai Expo 2020, the legacy of uncalled-for hesitancy about our cultural identity is now being laid to rest.

It is noteworthy that the PM too has been vigorously bringing our cultural icons to the fore. His efforts have ensured ghar wapasi of several artefacts of historical importance. Unapologetic in presenting a copy of Bhagwad-Gita to foreign dignitaries, it was only after 2014 that the nation witnessed international Ramayana Festivals happening regularly with enthusiastic participation of countries—some of them avowedly Islamic. Like the Mahabharata and Ramayana, the global influence of Indian festivals like Diwali, Holi, Ganesh Chaturthi and Puja are now fast spreading across the globe. Prime ministers and heads of states are now competing with each other in wishing Indians a Happy Diwali.

In keeping with these changing winds, the PM was right in underscoring the relevance of Indian philosophy while speaking at the COP26. Quoting from the Surya Upanishad, he pointed out: "Ever since life originated on Earth, the life cycle of all living beings, and their routine, has been linked to the sunrise and sunset. As long as this natural connect has continued, our planet remained healthy. But in the modern era, man in the race to overtake the cycle set by the sun disturbed the natural balance and caused great damage to his environment. If we are to re-establish a balanced life with nature, the path of this will be illuminated by our sun. We have to walk along with the sun again to save the future of humanity." His idea of 'One Sun, One World, One Grid' was also welcomed by all as he advocated that it is the solution to the challenge of solar energy being available only during the day and also weather-dependent. His concern reflected the quintessential Indian world view of Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam. The address and forceful assertion while providing a practical solution has opened a new chapter in our history of soft power. This New India, drawing confidence through its philosophy, traditional knowledge and culture, is now asserting its position as "part of solution". Indeed, this is real soft-power Diwali!

THE DANCING GODS AND GODDESSES OF MALABAR

JAYARAM PODUVAL

Head, Department of Art History, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda

The 27th of October 2021 was a normal working day for most of us. Even the local calendars of Kerala did not celebrate the day with the colour red. However, in north Kerala, the day initiated the festival season that would continue till the Southwest monsoon comes knocking on the doors of the state next year. Known as Patthaam Udayam, the 10th day of the month of Tula (Libra) in the Malayalam calendar witnesses the beginning of the Theyyam season in north Malabar, especially in Kannur and Kasaragod districts. While travelling through the region, one would come across huge hoarding boards announcing various Theyyam festivals, locally called as Kaliyattam (often mentioned as Perum Kaliyatta Mahotsavam, meaning Grand Performance Festival). If you are travelling by night on the national highway, you may be slowed down by the traffic congestion created by the makeshift market and parking connected to the festival. Slowing down thus, you may hear the beating of drums and the rhythmic chiming of anklets worn by the gods and goddesses. The season for the gods to descend upon north Malabar has arrived. For the next six months, these divinities will be dancing in various temples impersonated by proficient Theyyam artists. Through them, the deities will re-enact their great feats and sacrifices. They will converse with their devotees, heal their wounds, and bless them for better health, harvest and prosperity. Worshippers will congregate in large numbers to meet their deity. One can witness the recurrence of ancient aniconic religious behaviour sustained in popular memory, an intangible heritage.

The word Theyyam is the local pronunciation of the word Daivam, denoting the divine. A unique aspect of this ritualistic dance form is the performers' metamorphosis into the deity. The costumes and the performance will be based on a specific story of the god/goddess. For example, Kativanur Veeran would enact his fight against the Coorgi warriors with elaborate kalari movements. Likewise, in the Putiya Bhagavati Theyyam, which tells the story of a woman who burns the fort of her husband's tormentor and immolates herself in that fire, she would appear with four big fire balls attached to her body. The stories used for the performances refer to, along with puranic tales, regional, local legends and family chronicles of North Malabar. There are a few stories that are a mixture of local traditions as well as Brahmanical ones, as in the case of the Vishnumoorthi. In Vishnumoorthi Theyyam, the Narasimha tale and the local tradition of Palantayi Kannan, a lower caste boy killed by a landlord, are depicted.

Though it is difficult to trace the history of the Theyyam performance, one can definitely identify it as an alternate propitiating system that probably had pre-Brahmanical origin where the animistic and ancestor worship was in vogue as referred to by the Tamil Sangam literature. One can observe the traces of these worshipping systems in Theyyam as in the case of Kativanur Veeran, who sacrificed his life for the community in a war and becomes the deity or in the deification of Muchilottu Bhagavati, who rebelled against the society with her knowledge, the retaliation of which led her to sacrifice herself in fire. Various communities of North Malabar belonging to various agrarian, merchant and craft-oriented castes as the Tiyans, Vaniyans, Maniyanis, Moosaris, Asaris, Nairs, Nambiars, Poduvals, etc., worship these deities in the sacred precinct known as Aras belonging to ancestral homes (tharavadus), or kavus/kshetrams of local communities belonging a specific caste. Theyyam is performed mainly by artists of the community of Vannan, Malayan, Velan, Koppalan, Chingathan, Anjoottan, Munnoottan, Mavilan, Panan and Parayan, and among them, the first three communities perform the most.

Theyyam presents a unique and fascinating amalgamation of performance, ritual, literature and music. The performances start with Thottams that are sung by the performer and accompanying percussionists. Thottams are musical renditions of the origin myth of the deity. At the end of the Thottam, the performer gets into a trance and enacts some representative feats of the deity. Thottam is the prelude to the main performance to the gods and goddesses. The Veeran/Hero Theyyams however have the prelude known as Vellattam (with the exception of Kativanur Veeran). The main performance of a Theyyam is known as Kolam, which will have elaborate costumes and monumental headgear known as mudi. The mudis are made of bamboo, fabric and coconut leaves along with the occasional use of locally available soft wood. Other portions of the costume will be cloths that are predominantly red with designs in white and black colours, ideal for the light conditions at night and day. The Kolams will have intricate facial designs depending on the character of the divinities invoking the veera, roudra and bhayanaka rasas. The Theyyam artist may not quote Bharata's Natyashastra but he creates these rasas among the devotees who enter into a trance with the rhythm and dance.

The flames of the fire emanating from the torches give a divine halo to the deity, the tall headgear rising above the crowd and swaying with the rhythmic movement. The flames from the torches slowly fade away to the rising sun. Magic moments of colour, music and dance take us to the crescendo of devotion. At that moment we don't see the performer but the Goddess herself in front of us, dancing.

Need comprehensive probe

This is with reference to Fake invoices for kickbacks to clinch deal? (Nov 9). A French investigative journal has alleged that €7.5 million was paid by Dassault to a middleman to clinch the fighter jet deal during the UPA regime. However, the deal itself materialised during the regime of the present NDA and there have been allegations of kickbacks made among others by the Congress itself. The NDA government has however refused to order a probe into the allegations. Now that there are allegations of kickbacks against the UPA too, it would be appropriate to order a comprehensive probe to cover the period from 2007 to the present.

Padma for common people

It is heartening to note the paradigm shift in the policy of identifying achievers for Padma awards. We are seeing more and more common people with outstanding achievement in social service being honored. They are hidden treasures of India and have proved that poverty is not a hurdle for service to humanity. Their achievement will motivate others to take this up. The Centre deserves accolades for setting this new precedent since it came to power. One hopes the trend continues.

CM is right on fuel prices

Telangana CM K Chandrashekar Rao is correct in saying that the Centre had gradually increased fuel charges by around ₹40 per litre but has now cut petrol and diesel prices by just ₹10 and ₹5 respectively. On the other hand, BJP politicians are asking states to reduce VAT even though the latter have not increased it in recent times.

Hidden gem in MP

India lives in her villages and is rich in her culture and architecture (Kadwaya and the 'drunken peacocks' of MP, Nov 9). I thank the author for bringing to light this hidden gem in a village in Madhya Pradesh. But it is sad to see that governments have ignored many of our monuments.

Chennai inundated

This is with reference to It's 2015 redux for Chennai (Nov 8). Well before the onset of monsoon, TN ministers and bureaucrats were heard shouting from the rooftops that "we're monsoon ready", implying they can meet any eventuality with ease. Sunday's flooding and waterlogging clearly show how hollow their words are.

Toss, format and rest

This is with reference to Back to drawing board (Nov 8). Both New Zealand and Pakistan played brilliantly. We were beaten in all departments of the game as both won very convincingly and they deserve to be in the semifinals. Nevertheless, there seems to be some poor thinking inside the ICC and the current league format is flawed. We have also found that the toss has played a very crucial role in the outcome of the matches. Perhaps all teams in a group should play each other twice and those losing the toss in the first round can have the option to choose either batting or bowling while playing the second time around. And more matches will lead to the elimination of black swan events. Further, no T20 matches should be played at least a month before the World Cup as it will enable players to recover and give their best in the tournament.

Sidhu has the last laugh as Punjab cabinet accepts Deol's resignation

Advocate General quits after fallout with state Congress president, new appointment today

HARPREET BAJWA @Chandigarh

IN his tussle with Punjab Chief Minister Charanjit Singh Channi over the appointments of Advocate General Amar Preet Singh Deol and DGP Iqbal Preet Singh Sahota, Punjab Congress president Navjot Singh Sidhu had his way. Deol's resignation was accepted by the state cabinet on Tuesday.

After a meeting with Channi and the state cabinet, Sidhu said, "AG Deol resigned a few days ago. The cabinet today accepted his resignation. It will be sent to the governor. Tomorrow, the new AG will be appointed."

The 61-year old Deol was appointed AG on September 27 following the resignation of Atul Nanda, who quit after Amarinder Singh stepped down as CM. Sidhu had been pushing for Deol's replacement because he had represented former Punjab DGP Sumedh Singh Saini in cases related to the 2015 desecration incidents and police firing on protesters.

It led to a legal debate on conflict of interest primarily on the grounds that Deol was counsel of Saini and suspended IGP Paramraj Singh Umaranangal and thus would not be able to appear nor advise the state in cases related to Behbal Kalan police firing and sacrilege. Last week, Deol launched an attack on Sidhu for spreading misinformation to gain a political advantage and accused him of obstructing the functioning of the state government and the AG's office.

Channi said the state cabinet has sent names of 10 police officers with over 30 years of service to be appointed as DGP to UPSC. The UPSC will short-list three and of them will be appointed DGP. "We will select a new DGP from the panel," he added.

Channi also said that the cabinet has decided to regularise 36,000 contractual employees with more than 10 years of service. The cabinet also approved creation of deemed posts. A legislation in this regard will be tabled. Minimum wages of unskilled workers will be increased with effect from March 1, 2020.

SAD brass flocks temple eyeing 38% Hindu votes

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Chandigarh

WITH Assembly elections just a couple of months away, political parties in Punjab are playing the religion card to woo Hindus and Sikhs. With eye on the 38 per cent Hindu vote bank, Shiromani Akali Dal (SAD) president Sukhbir Singh Badal and other leaders reached Salasar Dham in Rajasthan as part of their recent visits to Hindu religious shrines.

Sources said Badal with a few MLAs and ex-MLAs paid obeisance to Balaji Maharaj at Salasar Dham. They prayed for peace, communal harmony and brotherhood in Punjab. A few days ago during Navratri, Badal was in Chintpurni temple in Himachal Pradesh, other than visiting temples in Amritsar and Jalandhar.

Former Union minister and MP from Bathinda, Harsimrat Kaur Badal (Sukhbir's wife) urged PM Narendra Modi to intervene and approve a proposal for a land swap between India and Pakistan for merger of the holy shrine at Kartarpur Sahib in India in exchange for a a suitable chunk of land elsewhere on the lines of the Hussainiwala village exchange.

She said this would be "the first step towards the eventual fulfilment of the sacred Sikh prayer for unhindered access and the right to perform service of the Guru in the sacred shrines taken away from the Sikh masses in 1947." She urged Modi to get the Kartarpur Sahib corridor re-opened.

Meanwhile, Punjab Congress president Navjot Singh Sidhu went to ICP at Kartarpur corridor on the Indo-Pak border demanding that the Centre should open the corridor so that Sikh pilgrims can visit gurdwaras in Pakistan.

Cong divided over controversial appointments

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Chandigarh

CONGRESS leaders are a divided lot over the appointments of kin and familiy members of ministers and MLAs. They are pointing fingers at each other, following the recent appointment of Deputy Chief Minister Sukhjinder Randhawa's son-in-law Tarun Vir Singh Lehal as Additional Advocate General. Opposition parties are hitting out at the government for these appointments.

A day after Lehal was appointed, Qadian MLA Fateh Jung Bajwa demanded that Randhawa should resignation on moral grounds. Bajwa said in the fag end of the government's tenure, such appointments would make it difficult for the party to face people ahead of next year's elections. "When my son Arjun Singh Bajwa was given a government job on compassionate grounds, Randhawa amd others termed it nepotism. Now, they are serving their own family members," Bajwa said.

The Aam Aadmi Party and Shiromani Akali Dal have wasted no time in hitting out at the state government on these appointments. AAP leader Raghav Chadha said "The Congress is fulfilling its principal poll promise of 'Har Ghar Naukri' but with a minor modification as these jobs are going to family members of Congress ministers and MLAs."

Environment or national safety? Top court caught in dilemma

KANU SARDA @New Delhi

WITH the Centre stressing the need of better feeder roads in the mountains for army to transport men and material, the Supreme Court on Tuesday pondered how much it can interfere on the ground of environmental concerns in matters affecting the defence and security of the nation.

The bench stressed there should be a balanced approach as defence and environment are important for citizens. A bench headed by Justice DY Chandrachud said, "We cannot deny that at such a height, security of the nation is at stake. Can the highest constitutional court say we will override defence needs particularly in the face of recent events? Can we say that environment will triumph over the defence of the nation? Or we say that defence concerns be taken care of so that environmental degradation does not take place."

He added the court is in a predicament because the Centre has cited defence as the reason for road widening. "If Centre says they are doing it for tourism, we can impose stringent conditions. But when it is needed to defend borders, then it is a serious predicament (the) court has to encounter."

The Court was hearing an application by the NGO Citizens for Green Doon challenging the Stage I forest and wildlife clearance granted for improvement and expansion of roads by felling trees. The Char Dham highway is a 900 km road project that promises all-weather connectivity to four Hindu pilgrimage centres in Uttarakhand. One of the benefits, as claimed by the Centre, is it will facilitate rapid movement of armed forces along China border.

According to government's own notification of 2018, road width cannot exceed 5.5 metres in hilly terrains. The notification was amended in December 2020. The ministry had also filed an application seeking permission to construct roads of 10 metres width.

Manipur Governor's silence on EC opinion irks SC

PTI @New Delhi

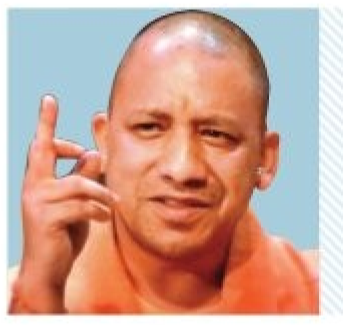
THE Supreme Court on Tuesday said that the Manipur Governor cannot "sit over" the opinion given by the Election Commission regarding the disqualification of 12 BJP MLAs in the "office of profit" issue.

A three-judge bench headed by L Nageswara Rao made the observation after it was apprised that the Governor is yet to take a decision on the EC's opinion furnished in January.

"Reference has been passed by the Election Commission. Why can't the Governor pass an order? The government should ask the Governor. Something must be done. The Election Commission had submitted its opinion in January. The Governor cannot sit over the decision," said the bench, also comprising Justices B R Gavai and B V Nagarathna.

The top court was hearing a plea filed by Karong MLA D D Thaisii and others seeking disqualification of 12 MLAs on the ground that they were holding the posts of Parliamentary Secretaries, which amounted to "offices of profit".

Advocate Kapil Sibal, appearing for Thaisii, contended that the Governor cannot keep the decision pending and he was entitled to know the view.



PREVIOUS REGIMES IN ADITYANATH'S LINE OF FIRE

Lucknow: Raising the issue of cow protection in Badaun district of western UP, CM Yogi Adityanath blamed the previous regimes for patronising illegal slaughterhouses and allowing smuggling of cattle. "Cow smuggling has always been a major issue in Uttar Pradesh. Cattle smuggling and illegal slaughterhouses were the hallmarks of the previous governments. When we came, all illegal slaughterhouses were closed to restrict cattle smuggling completely. We worked for cow protection," said Yogi.

UP restarts process to fulfil trillion-dollar economy aim

NAMITA BAJPAI @Lucknow

THE Uttar Pradesh government's promise in 2020 to make the economy of the state worth a trillion dollars suffered major blows due to the pandemic. Now, the government is likely to re-initiate the process of appointing a consultant to work out a roadmap to accomplish the target.

The process of appointing a consultant got stuck following cancellation of bids on technical grounds in March. With the appointments set to take place now, the deadline of 2025 may also be amended. "The decision to restart the process has been taken at the highest level. We will follow up once it is conveyed to us," said a senior state government officer.

PM Narendra Modi had floated the idea of making Uttar Pradesh a trillion-dollar economy at the UP Investors Summit 2018. CM Yogi Adityanath and his team started working on it and invited suggestions from leading financial institutions. In June last year, the state floated bids for the appointment of a consultant. Bidders were asked to submit documents by October 9, 2020.

Eight bids were received, including one from a premier management institute. Four qualified for the technical round and their bids were opened in November. The bids were cancelled soon after.

RLD rules out pact with Congress, hints at SP

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Lucknow

ENDING speculations of teaming up with Congress party in the upcoming Assembly polls, Rashtriya Lok Dal (RLD) chief Jayant Chaudhary said his party's talks with Samajwadi Party were in final stages and a decision on an alliance would be made soon.

Jayant ruled out an alliance with Congress, which had reportedly offered him a Rajya Sabha seat in lieu of the poll understanding. Recently, Jayant met Priyanka Gandhi at the VIP lounge of Lucknow airport. Both left for Delhi in a chartered flight of the Chhattisgarh government. The meeting had led to speculations of a possible electoral tie-up between the two parties.

Political pundits claimed that both Congress and Samajwadi Party were out to woo the Jat party (RLD), considerinbg the traction among the community RLD has got in the wake of the ongoing farmers unrest over three contentious farm laws in western UP.

The RLD, once a very influential force in western Uttar Pradesh, is now striving to regain lost ground riding the wave of farmers' protests in which the RLD's core Jat voters are at the epicentre. The unrest among farmers in western UP has given RLD hope of putting up a good show. RLD has been contesting elections in UP in alliance with Samajwadi Party since 2014 and failed to perform substantially in 2017 and 2019. Now, 2022 will be do or die for RLD.

Clearing the air on his meeting with Priyanka, Jayant said there is pressure tactic to get a bigger chunk of seats from Samajwadi Party. "It was an informal meeting which was common among leaders in earlier times. The BJP has changed this culture and people have become enemies of each other in politics."

He also said his party would fulfil all promises made in the election manifesto, including one crore jobs, fixed price for sugarcane and guaranteed payments to cane growers.

Akhilesh claims voter list omissions, threatens stir

Lucknow: Samajwadi Party president Akhilesh Yadav has threatened a stir against the Election Commission of India for allegedly striking off of around 16 lakh names from the voters' list. He raised questions on the working of the poll panel. He claimed that the ECI was not able to furnish details of 16 lakh voters struck out of the list. "Officers of Uttar Pradesh have been deliberately posted at the Commission. A big question is being raised on the work of the Commission." On chances of an alliance with uncle Shivpal Yadav, he said, "I have spoken to him and even met him on Diwali. Also spoke to village elders. We said he will get maximum respect."

First consignment of stolen artefacts returns to India

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @New Delhi

THE first consignment of antiquities containing 63 artefacts and idols, which were smuggled out of the country over the decades, reached Delhi on Tuesday from the US. The returned articles were handed over to Prime Minister Narendra Modi during his visit to the US in September.

Officials of the Archaeological Survey of India (ASI) received antiquities at Delhi airport and shifted them to its headquarters. After feasibility study and assessing security arrangements, the retrieved objects may be given to authorities to the states from where they were stolen.

"These artefacts will remain in the custody of ASI until any decision is taken. We have an arrangement to store antiquities at Purana Quila," said an ASI official. The items largely belong to 11 CE to 14 CE. The copper anthropomorphic object is from 2000 BC and one of the terracotta articles dates back to 2 CE.

Parents contest Bhopal hospital blaze toll

Chouhan govt denies that casualty figures are suppressed; orders high-level probe, ₹4 lakh in compensation

MP minister Vishwas Kailash Sarnag meets families at the hospital on Tuesday | PTI

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bhopal

THE kin of many infants admitted at the fire-hit Kamla Nehru Government Hospital in Bhopal and the opposition Congress have alleged that the toll was much higher than four deaths, a charge denied by the Shivraj Singh Chouhan-led BJP government.

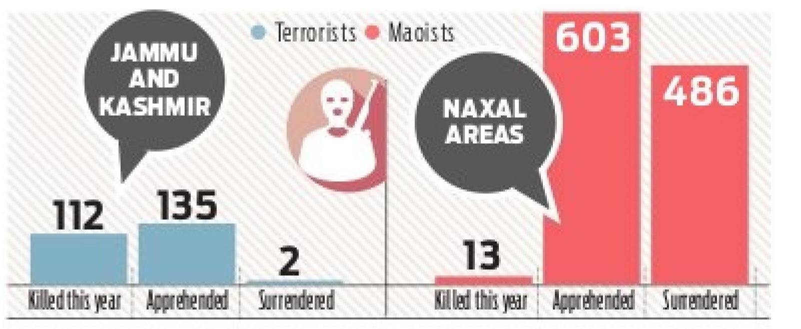
"Hospital and government are lying as many more newborns, including my four-day-old child, who were admitted at the unit where the fire happened, died. My child was to be discharged on Monday, but didn't come out of the hospital alive," mourned Bhopal resident Shailendra with the body of his newborn on the lap.

Leader of Opposition and former Madhya Pradesh chief minister Kamal Nath alleged that the casualty figures are being suppressed by the government like during the second wave of the Covid pandemic.

"I spoke with many parents who are still searching for their missing newborns and infants but are not being allowed entry in the fire-hit critical care facilities. The actual toll is much more than four being reported by the government," the Congress veteran said. "Contrary to the medical education minister's claims that only 40 infants were admitted at the fire-hit paediatric unit, there were 140-150 patients at Pediatric Intensive Care Unit (PICU) and Special Newborn Care Unit (SNCU) on the third floor. We demand a probe by a sitting high court judge in place of the probe which is being overseen by a senior state bureaucrat."

But, Medical Education Minister Vishvas Sarang maintained that the Monday night's blaze claimed four lives. "There were 40 children admitted to the fire-hit unit, and all were rescued by fire-fighters and hospital staff. But due to severity of their existing health complications, four of them couldn't be saved. SNCU and PICU attend to severely ill infants. Many such kids die despite best efforts of doctors in such units. It won't be correct to assume that all deaths were the result of the blaze," Sarang asserted.

A high-level probe was ordered and ₹4 lakh announced to each of the four bereaved families, the minister assured the tragedy-hit households.



500 MORE TROOPS IN J&K, SECURITY UPPED AMID KILLINGS

SANA SHAKIL @ New Delhi

THE Central government has ordered ramping up of security measures in Jammu and Kashmir to avert an October like situation which recorded a spate of targeted killings particularly of civilians and security personnel, top officials said on Tuesday. The measures include deployment of five new companies comprising around 500 troops of Central Reserve Police Force in the valley, establishment of more bunkers to monitor movement of terrorists, increased frisking and checking of vehicles.

A senior CRPF official said that an odd 15,000 people and 8,000 vehicles are being checked daily. "It is difficult to control civilian killings but we are taking additional measures to stop such incidents. Visibility of forces, especially at nights has been increased. More surprise checkpoints and flash checkpoints have been set up in past month," the official said.

The measures follow a three day visit by union home minister Amit Shah to the valley in October which alone recorded 13 civilian killings. The announcement also comes a day after another civilian Mohd Ibrahim Khan was was shot dead by terrorists in Srinagar. At a press briefing on Tuesday, a CRPF spokesperson said that the force has taken additional measures to counter terrorism in the valley after a spate of targeted killings in the past few months.

The spokesperson added that the new deployment is in addition to about 5,000 CAPF troops deployed in October just around Shah's visit to the union territory.

The security forces and the National Investigation Agency have intensified the search for active militants in the valley, the spokesperson said. As of November 9, 112 terrorists have been killed this year while the number of terrorists apprehended so far this year is 135, he said.

The spokesperson also spoke about the measures taken by CRPF in Left Wing Extremism (LWE) areas to counter Naxalism. As many as 486 Maoists have surrendered this year and 603 have been apprehended as of date, the spokesperson said, adding that security forces also neutralied 13 Maoists.

RELIEF

Gehlot vows to bring down VAT on fuel

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Jaipur

AFTER relentless attack by the BJP over fuel price, Rajasthan Chief Minister Ashok Gehlot announced on Tuesday that his government would be reducing VAT on petrol and diesel like other states.

"When all states have reduced the prices, we would also have to reduce it. Our government will also provide relief to people by reducing VAT on petrol and diesel in the state," he said at a village in Jodhpur.

Earlier in the day, the chief minister had appealed to PM Narendra Modi to give more relief to the countrymen by further slashing excise duty.

Currently, the price of petrol and diesel are ₹111.10 and ₹95.71 per litre in Jaipur. The BJP has been attacking the Congress government as it had refused to 26% and 36% VAT on diesel and petrol.

The Centre on November 3 slashed excise duty on petrol by ₹5 per litre and on diesel by ₹10 a litre giving the much needed relief to consumers battered by record-high retail fuel prices.

The opposition BJP was breathing down the neck of the government on fuel prices especially after Punjab CM Charanjit Singh Channi put up an ad claiming that fuel prices are lower in his state than Delhi, Haryana and Rajasthan.

"The Gehlot government is befooling the people," claimed BJP state chief Satish Poonia.

Malik, Fadnavis trade bombastic charges

SUDHIR SURYAWANSHI @Mumbai

'DUD CRACKER' SWIPE

Taking a dig at Devendra Fadnavis, Nawab Malik said the BJP leader's 'bomb' turned out to be a 'dud cracker'. Last week, Fadnavis had claimed that he would burst a 'bomb' exposing the NCP minister's links with the underworld after Diwali

FOLLOWING up on his promise to "drop a bomb" after Diwali and 'expose' NCP spokesperson and Maharashtra minister Nawab Malik's connections with the underworld, BJP leader Devendra Fadnavis on Tuesday alleged that Malik and his family members had entered into a dubious land deal with two persons convicted in the 1993 Mumbai blasts case. Hitting back, the NCP leader threatened to drop a "hydrogen bomb", alleging it was Fadnavis who had underworld links.

Addressing a press conference, Fadnavis alleged Malik and his family member had bought three acres of land at Goawala compound in Kurla for ₹30 lakh in 2005. The property was bought "from the killers of Mumbaikars" by Solidus Investment Private Ltd – owned by Malik and his family members, he said.

The property was owned by Shahwali Khan, who is serving life imprisonment for his role in the 1993 serial blasts, while Salim Patel, who held the power of attorney for the plot, was the bodyguard and driver of Hasina Parkar, sister of underworld don Dawood Ibrahim. The opposition leader said Malik's son Faraz had signed the documents of the Kurla land deal with Khan and Patel.

Fadnavis claimed, and questioned whether Malik was helping the convicts evade attachment of their property, as mandated under law. He said would submit these documents to "appropriate authorities" for a probe.

Malik denied the charges as baseless and claimed that the property was bought following due legal process. Alleging that Fadnavis was "making a mountain out of a molehill". "Who was the foreign national don who was brought to Mumbai and extort money during BJP rule by Fadnavis?" Wait for Wednesday 10 am," he said.

'Defamation suit filed to defend NCB zonal head'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Jaipur

NAWAB Malik told the Bombay High Court on Tuesday that NCB officer Sameer Wankhede's father had filed a ₹1.25 crore defamation suit against him to cover up his son's illegalities. Seeking dismissal of the suit, he said it will curtail his fundamental right of freedom of speech.

In his affidavit, Malik stated that none of the statements he had made against Wankhede were false and that it was based on the evidence he had produced in support of his claims that a vigilance inquiry against the NCB officer was initiated.

In another development, Wankhede's father filed a police complaint against Malik for allegedly making "false and derogatory" remarks against him and his family members and their caste. Claiming that the family belonged to the Mahar community, he sought registration of an FIR against the minister under the SC/ST Act. He also sought action against Malik under the IT Act alleging that owing to his personal grudge, the minister went to the extent of "stalking" his daughter and illegally used photographs from her social media and circulated them.

In view of a seriew s of revelations in the Aryan Khan case and the ED custody of Anil Deshmukh, NCP chief Sharad Pawar met Maharashtra home minister Dilip Walse Patil at his residence. Mumbai Police chief Hemant Nagrale was also present at the meeting. The NCP chief also met Shiv Sena leader Sanjay Raut separately.

"Pawar wants to understand this ongoing controversy in detail as these developments have larger ramifications and also to guide his party leaders," said a NCP source.

SLAIN pharmacist Makhan Lal Bindro's brother-in-law Dr Sandeep Mawa calls himself lucky as militants killed his salesman thinking it was him on Monday night.

Mawa, who runs a wholesale shop of dry fruit and spices in downtown Srinagar, had received a call from police at around 3 pm alerting threat to his life. He left the place immediately. Five hours later, his salesman Mohd Ibrahim Khan was shot dead when he was boarding an SUV normally used by Mawa. Incidentally, the police had alerted the Kashmiri Pandit businessman and his father about militant threat about eight months ago. While Mawa's father had survived an attack more than three decades ago, his brother-in-law Bindroo was shot dead by militants on October 5.

After Monday's alert, Mawa left the shop immediately in a different car than his usual SUV. "The SUV was in a lane and another vehicle was in front of the shop. I left in that car and thought I would return within two-three hours but I could not come."

Around 8.10 pm, Ibrahim closed the shop and was moving towards the SUV when militants fired four bullets. He was evacuated and taken w to a hospital but could not be saved. Mawa knew Khan for 13 years. "It was a case of mistaken identity. When Ibrahim had opened the SUV, he was fired at by militants suspecting that it was me," said Mawa. "I was the actual target of militants."

Land issue: Shillong Sikhs agree to conditional talks

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Guwahati

AN organisation of the Sikhs in Meghalaya has agreed to conditional talks with the state government on the issue of the relocation of families from Shillong's Harijan Colony, also called Punjabi Lane.

Some 250 Sikh families are settled here for over 200 years now. Earlier, as the standoff continued, the Sikhs had told the government in no uncertain terms they would die but not leave the colony.

In a letter to Chief Minister Conrad K Sangma, Harijan Panchayat Committee secretary Gurjit Singh said the Sikhs would participate in the talks but the government should first recognise their presence. The statement comes days after Sangma had said the government was open to talks.

Recently, Deputy CM Prestone Tynsong announced the government had taken possession of the land at Harijan Colony after paying a premium of over ₹2 crore to the Syiem (king) of Hima Mylliem, the original owner of the land. The government plans to convert the area for commercial use.

'Poor in Hindi, MZ needs new chief secy'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Guwahati

MIZORAM Chief Minister Zoramthanga has urged the Centre to appoint someone with working knowledge in Mizo as the chief secretary since the Mizos at large and his Cabinet Ministers do not know Hindi.

Senior bureaucrat Renu Sharma, who succeeded Lalnunmawia Chuaungo as the chief secretary, had assumed charge on November 1. Chuaungo, however, had succeeded Arvind Ray, a non-Mizo IAS officer of the 1984 batch. It could not be ascertained if Ray has any flair in Mizo.

In an October 29 letter to Union Home Minister Amit Shah, Zoramthanga said even as he was seeking additional chief secretary JC Ramthanga to be the next chief secretary, the MHA went ahead with Sharma. "The Mizo people by and large generally do not understand Hindi. None of my Cabinet Ministers understands Hindi. Some of them even have a problem with English. With such a background, a chief secretary without the knowledge of a working standard Mizo language will never be an effective and efficient," he wrote.

Chief Minister Zoramthanga

This, he reasoned, was the reason why the Centre had never appointed a person, who does not know Mizo, as the chief secretary. "Whether it is the UPA or the NDA government at the Centre, this has been a practice since the creation of Mizoram."

It is a well-known fact that in other states, a chief secretary, who does not know even the basic working language of the respective state, is never posted at all, Zoramthanga wrote.

MOST PROLIFIC TOURISTS TO ISLAND NATION ARE INDIANS

SRI LANKA: Indians topped the list of holiday makers in Sri Lanka in the month of October, officials here said on Tuesday, as the island nation is showing a gradual revitalisation of leisure tourism after being impacted by the pandemic. India, the UK, Pakistan, Russia and Germany were the top five international tourist generating markets during October, it said. As of October 31, 60,695 tourists had visited Sri Lanka this year.

Cong okays impeachment trial; Pinera may yet escape as he has heft in Senate

SANTIAGO

Chile's lower house of congress on Tuesday approved the impeachment trial of President Sebastian Pinera over corruption allegations that appeared in the Pandora Papers leaks.

Lawmakers in the Chamber of Deputies gathered the 78 votes required to seek impeachment and advance proceedings to the Senate over Pinera's involvement in the controversial sale of a mining company. The call for the impeachment of Pinera was presented in early October by members of the opposition, including socialist deputy Jaime Naranjo. Naranjo took 15 hours on the floor on Monday to read from the 1,300-page accusation against the president, arguing that Pinera's "impunity" should end. This is the second impeachment motion against him since 2019. The marathon speech was apparently designed to allow another left-wing lawmaker, Giorgio Jackson, to complete a period of quarantine and join the process before it ended so he could vote. "What we saw was a show," said Juan Jose Ossa, the minister general-secretary of the presidency, an equivalent to the chief of staff. The case grew as new details emerged about a deal first revealed in the Pandora Papers document leak, which highlighted offshore transactions involving political figures. Naranjo highlighted potential corruption around the 2010 sale of the huge Dominga mine in Chile when Pinera, a wealthy businessman, was a first-term president. The Pandora Papers linked Pinera to the sale of Dominga, through a company owned by his children, to businessman Carlos Delano -- a close friend of the president -- for $152 million.

The papers said a large part of the operation was carried out in the British Virgin Islands, a tax haven.

"Acting as president, he benefited (himself) and his family in a direct way, with information that he had in the exercise of his office," said Naranjo, adding that Pinera's involvement pushed up the sale price.

Migrants pawns in Belarus-Poland turf war

MOSCOW

THE Belarusian defence ministry on Tuesday denied allegations from Warsaw that Minsk was coordinating a wave of migrants attempting to cross into neighbouring EU member state Poland.

"The Belarusian defence ministry considers the accusations of the Polish side unfounded and unsubstantiated," it said in a statement.

Poland on Monday said it had blocked a bid by hundreds of migrants to enter the country from Belarus and warned of an "armed" escalation with thousands more massed near the border. Washington and Brussels called on Minsk to stop what they described as an orchestrated influx and Polish Prime Minister Mateusz Morawiecki said Tuesday the border crisis threatens the security of the entire European Union. The Belarusian defence ministry Tuesday in turn accused Poland of "deliberately" escalating tensions.

It said Poland had deployed 10,000 military personnel to the border without giving prior warning to Belarusian authorities, in what it said was a violation of joint security agreements.

Minsk said that according to the agreements, observers should be present at any deployment of more than 6,000 military personnel. "Minsk has so far not received any notification or invitation of observers from the Polish side." Belarusian interior minister Ivan Kubrakov told the state-run news agency Belta earlier Tuesday that the migrants were in the ex-Soviet country "legally," adding: "there have been no violations of the law on the part of migrants so far." Meanwhile, Polish Prime Minister Mateusz Morawiecki said an unprecedented wave of migrants trying to illegally enter Poland from Belarus threatens the security of the entire European Union.

HINDUS WIN BACK LAND FOR FIRST TEMPLE IN ISLAMABAD

ISLAMABAD

THE city authorities in Islamabad restored a piece of land allotted to the Hindu community for the construction of the first temple in the Pakistani capital following a huge outcry after officials told a top court here that the allotment has been cancelled. The Capital Development Authority (CDA) revealed the cancellation of the plot on Monday during the hearing of a case in the Islamabad High Court (IHC), the Dawn newspaper reported on Tuesday.

CDA's counsel Javed Iqbal told the court that the civic agency had already cancelled the plot for the Hindu community in February this year for not starting construction on it. According to the report, four kanals (0.5 acres) of land at H-9/2 in Islamabad was allotted to the community in 2016 for the construction of the first ever Hindu temple, cremation and community centre.

Following the news of the cancellation of the plot, the mainstream as well as social media criticised the CDA, forcing it to withdraw the notification. The CDA spokesperson Syed Asif Raza said that following a decision of the government, allotments of all lands issued to various offices, universities and other institutions on which no construction work had been started were cancelled.

Domestic air traffic rises 67% to 8.8 mn in October

This comes on a revival in travel sentiment during festival season

ECONOMIC NEWS BUREAU
@ New Delhi

DOMESTIC air passenger traffic rose around 67% year-on-year and 24% sequentially to about 8.8 million passengers in October'21 following a revival in travel sentiment during the festival season and a downward trajectory in the fresh Covid-19 cases, according to data released by rating agency ICRA.

The data highlights that on an average, less than 3 lakh passengers boarded flights every day in India last month. However, according to data released by the Ministry of Civil Aviation (MoCA), this number is now inching towards the pre-Covid level of 4 lakh. On November 7 and November 8, average daily traffic in the domestic market stood at around 3.75 lakh.

"Domestic air traffic is touching new heights, one after the other, inching closer to pre-Covid levels. The trend is likely to continue riding on the success of India's vaccination drive & economic recovery," said aviation minister Jyotiraditya M. Scindia on Monday.

Airlines' capacity deployment in October was around 46% higher than October 2020 (72,000 departures in October 2021, against 49,150 departures in October 2020). For October 2021, the average daily departures were at 2,400, significantly higher than the average daily departures of 1,585 in October 2020, and higher than 2,100 in September 2021.

However, on November 7 and November 8, daily departures were over 2,700 levels, highlighting a pickup in traffic.

Suprio Banerjee, Vice President & Sector Head at ICRA said that though the recovery continued in October 2021, demand continues to be subdued from the corporate traveller segment as reflected in passenger traffic, which is lower by 28% in October 2021 compared to the pre-Covid levels.

According to ICRA, aviation turbine fuel (ATF) prices, which have seen a surge of 94.4% on a Y-o-Y basis till November 2021, continue to worry the sector. "This, coupled with relatively low capacity utilisation of aircraft fleet, will continue to weigh on financial performance of Indian carriers in FY2022," it said.

Britannia to hike prices by up to 10%

ECONOMIC NEWS BUREAU
@ New Delhi

LEADING biscuit maker Britannia will continue to increase prices of its products to beat inflationary pressure.

The company has decided to go for an estimated 7.5% and 10% price hike in the third and fourth quarters, respectively. Two-thirds of the hike will be through grammage reduction and one-third would be a direct increase in retail price, Britannia said in its investor presentation.

The company had taken a 4% hike in the second quarter. Despite this hike, Britannia, which makes brands like Good Day, Tiger and Marie Gold, witnessed a slump in its profit and margin during the recently concluded September quarter.

Britannia's Managing Director Varun Berry during an analyst call on Tuesday, said there is no substitute for price increase during the current inflationary environment. "We have actioned price hikes in a calibrated and gradual way to offset the cost pressure," added Berry.

Britannia, in its quarterly financial statement released on November 8, had said that it has been witnessing unprecedented inflation in market prices of palm oil at 54%, industrial fuel at 35% and packaging material at 30%.

This is leading to an overall inflation in the July to September quarter to 14%.

The Nusli Wadia-owned company's consolidated gross margin contracted nearly 500 basis points year on year to 37.5% which was lowest in eight years. Its profit after tax fell 21% during the quarter even as it posted domestic volume growth of 2%. According to analysts at Motilal Oswal, Britannia reported better than their expected sales but disappointed margin.

Other leading FMCG brands such as Marico, Nestle and HUL have initiated price hikes in recent quarters to offset inflationary pressure.

There is no substitute for price increase during the current environment. We have actioned price hikes in a calibrated & gradual way to offset cost pressure —Varun Berry, Managing Director, Britannia

M&M BULLISH ON AUTO MARKET; TO LAUNCH 16 EV MODELS BY 2027

ECONOMIC NEWS BUREAU
@ New Delhi

Mahindra's XUV700 clocks over 70,000 bookings during festive season

HOME-GROWN automaker Mahindra and Mahindra (M&M) is very bullish on the Indian automobile market and has set a cumulative revenue growth target of 15-20% by the year 2025.

The company also said that it plans to launch 16 electric vehicles (EVs) by 2027 across SUV and light commercial vehicle (LCV) categories to strengthen its leadership position in India's electric mobility segment.

At present, India's small electric passenger vehicle market is dominated by another home-grown company Tata Motors, which has 3 EVs and 10 more in the pipeline.

M&M said it is keeping its options open to either bring in private equity investors or carve out its EV business into a separate entity to drive its growth.

"In SUV, we are looking at 13 new launches by 2027 of which eight will be electric. We think by 2027 we'll be ready for at least 20% of the total UV (utility vehicles) volumes coming from EVs…So you can clearly see a strong focus on electric," said M&M Executive Director Rajesh Jejurikar.

On the farm equipment sector where M&M has a market leadership position, Jejurikar said that farm machinery revenue will grow by 10 times over our current levels by 2027 with 15 new products.

M&M on Tuesday reported an over eight-fold increase in its standalone profit after tax (PAT) at ₹1,432 crore for the second quarter ended September 30, 2021, riding on the back of robust sales.

Jejurikar said that they had a blockbuster XUV7OO launch witnessing bookings of more than 70,000. "The demand for our other key automotive products also remains strong. With better availability of semi-conductors, we hope to maintain the volume growth momentum Q3 onwards. We are poised well to deliver very strong growth and returns through an exciting new product portfolio."

In SUV, we are looking at 13 launches by 2027, of which eight will be electric. We think by 2027 we'll be ready for at least 20% of the total UV volumes coming from EVs—Rajesh Jejurikar, M&M Executive Director

RBI lifts ban on Diners Club, allows customer onboarding

ECONOMIC NEWS BUREAU
@ New Delhi

THE Reserve Bank of India (RBI) on Tuesday lifted the restrictions imposed on Diners Club International Limited in April, thus allowing it to onboard new customers.

The banking regulator noted that the ban was being lifted after Diners was found to have complied with the stipulated rules.

"In view of the satisfactory compliance demonstrated by Diners Club International Ltd. with the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) circular dated April 6, 2018 on Storage of Payment System Data, the restrictions imposed, vide order dated April 23, 2021, on on-boarding of fresh domestic customers have been lifted with immediate effect," the central Bank said.

The RBI had imposed the ban in April on Diners club and American Express for flouting RBI's norm on Storage of Payment System Data. Under the restrictions, RBI had barred the card network from onboarding new domestic customers onto its card network from May 1, 2021. That time Diners club had denied any impact on its existing customers.

On July 14, Mastercard was also barred from doing new card business in India owing to similar non-compliance.

The RBI's data localisation rules require payment operators in India to compulsorily store data in a server physically present in India. These entities were required to include end-to-end transaction details and information pertaining to payment or settlement transactions of (Indian) customers. Additionally, these entities are required to submit System Audit Report (SAR) conducted by a CERT-In empanelled auditor.

Paytm IPO: Retail portion subscribed 1.23 times

ECONOMIC NEWS BUREAU
@ Bengaluru

THE ₹18,300-crore Initial Public Offering (IPO) of One97 Communications-owned Paytm on the second day, Tuesday, saw its retail portion oversubscribed at 123%.

This would be a big boost to the leading financial services company Paytm, as it got a muted response on the first day of the bidding.

According to data from the exchanges, the total subscription now stands at 48%. It was subscribed just 18% on Monday. As per sources, the Canada Pension Plan Investment Board (CPPIB), has bid for 6 lakh shares worth ₹1,280 crore on the second day of the IPO. The CPPIB had invested in the anchor round of the IPO.

On the second day, the total shares that were bid by Foreign Institutional Investors (FII) stood at 1,20,03,522.

It is expected that QIBs (Qualified Institutional Buyers) will participate mostly on Wednesday, the last day of the subscription. Paytm IPO is quite larger than Zomato and Nykaa, as their price bands were lower.

Paytm opened for offer on November 8 and it will close on November 10.

The price band has been kept in the range between ₹2,080 and ₹2,150. The company targets a $20 billion valuation.

ON FISCAL TARGET

GOVT EXPECTS TO SAVE ₹1 L CR EXPENDITURE

ANURADHA SHUKLA @ New Delhi

THE Centre expects to save ₹1 lakh crore out of various schemes for which allocations were made in this year's budget. It also feels it is comfortably placed to achieve its fiscal targets despite the recent excise duty cut on petrol and diesel.

"We have been carefully planned expenditure, being accountable for every penny and spending where the need is. We expect to save ₹1 lakh crore on various schemes by the end of this fiscal. This may be adjusted against additional expenditure on other fronts. And we will comfortably achieve our fiscal target," a senior finance ministry official said.

The expenditure budgeted for 2021-22 was ₹34.83 lakh crore. According to the latest data compiled by the Controller General of Accounts, the government's total expenditure during the first half of this year is ₹16,26,017 crore, which is 46.7% of the budget estimates.

It is not that the government is curbing expenditure; it's that the Centre's monitoring it well. "For instance, we do not require spending on recapitalisation of banks this fiscal, which is to the tune of ₹20,000 crore. There are many other similar fronts where we can save. We are using that money where additional allocation is required. So at this stage, going by the tax flow, we are comfortably placed and do not need extra borrowing, as speculated by many," the official explained.

The Centre had pegged its gross borrowing target for the 2021-22 fiscal year at ₹12.5 lakh crore. Of this, the effective borrowing in the first half of the fiscal year was ₹7.02 lakh crore. It expects to borrow the rest of the amount in the second half.

The ministry has already initiated the budget exercise, starting with the process of revising their spending and revenue estimates for this year before placing demands for the next year.

Disvestment target to be missed

While it is quite happy with revenue collection, which it feels will exceed its target, the official admitted that the government may not achieve its divestment target of ₹1.75 lakh crore this year, which remains a matter of concern

India's coal import drops 12% to 94 MT in April-August

New Delhi: The government on Tuesday said the country's total coal import dropped 12% year-on-year (y-o-y) to 94.15 million tonnes (MT) in April-August 2021, on account of a substantial reduction in the import of non-coking coal. Include chip design under PLI: K'taka to Centre

ECONOMIC NEWS BUREAU
@ Bengaluru

THE Karnataka government has urged the Centre to provide incentives to semiconductor chip designing under the Production-Linked Incentive (PLI) scheme.

Speaking at the curtain-raiser of Bengaluru Tech Summit-2021 (BTS), which will be held from November 17-19, 2021, in Bengaluru, Karnataka, IT&BT and S&T Minister C N Ashwath Narayan said that they have asked the Centre to provide incentives to chip designing under the PLI scheme and that they have responded well to the suggestion.

"Semiconductor industry is the top priority as 70% of chip designing takes place here in Karnataka. We are trying to prioritise the electronics sector and are providing a lot of incentives," the minister said.

It may be noted that the Karnataka cabinet last year approved the Special Incentives Scheme for Electronics System Design and Manufacturing (ESDM) sector.

India Electronics and Semiconductor Association (IESA) Chairman Rajeev Khushu said shortage of semiconductors is a global phenomenon and every semiconductor company is ramping up the production and is also ensuring they get the right supply.

Meanwhile, Bengaluru Tech Summit 2021 will be held in hybrid mode. One of the highlights of the summit in its 24th edition will be the India-US conclave that will bring leaders from key industry verticals.

under and Chairman of Axilor Venture Krish Gopalakrishnan said this tech summit will be a road map for the future. "It is essential that the industry and tech leaders come together to understand and strategise on the emerging opportunities in the IT field."

IOA Dec 19 poll notice out, to be held in Guwahati

INDRANEEL DAS @Chennai

FINALLY, the date and venue of the Indian Olympic Association election (IOA) were finalised on Tuesday. As per a notice issued by the IOA, the election is slated to be held in Guwahati on December 19 (venue changed from Bengaluru or New Delhi). The members of the Executive Council had left the president and the secretary general to decide on the venue. The EC also agreed that the meeting would be an Annual General Meeting.

The agenda of the AGM too was finalised during the EC meeting on November 1. According to the notice sent out by IOA secretary general Rajeev Mehta, the AGM will be held at 10.30am in the Srimanta Sankaradeva Auditorium, Panjabari, Guwahati. Even the audited accounts of 2019-20 and 2020-21 would be tabled for consideration and passing during the AGM. There are eight agenda and "election of the Executive Council, office bearers and members of IOA" is seventh on the list.

The election gains significance because the two four-year tenures of secretary general is getting over this year. With the house divided into two factions, one led by the president and the other by the secretary general, there is a possibility that there would be election for the entire panel of the three office bearers — president, secretary general and treasure — two senior vice presidents, nine vice presidents, six joint secretaries and 10 Executive Council members. During the EC meeting, there were indications of the Batra-led faction's dominance, especially when the selection of Athletes' Commission's representative Anju Bobby George was put to vote. She won with a 17-5 majority while one abstained. However, the Mehta faction, with senior vice president Anil Khanna and treasurer Anandeshwar Pandey on their side, too are confident of getting their numbers together.

It's the repeat of 2019 50-over World Cup final but most of the protagonists are not there this time. The likes of Jofra Archer, Ben Stokes, Tom Latham and Lockie Ferguson will be missing but that shouldn't make this contest any less watchable. What makes the first semifinal of the T20 World Cup so intriguing is the two sides' contrasting interpretations of the format: batting heavy versus bowling heavy. An in-depth look at the match...

KIWI CHALLENGE FOR ENGLAND

ENGLAND'S POWERPLAY

No Jofra Archer, no problem. The main thing fuelling England's charge in this edition is the flurry of powerplay wickets they have picked up. In all, they have claimed 14 wickets in their five games, thanks to the likes of Moeen Ali and Chris Woakes. They were expected to struggle here but they have compensated ably. This is going to be extra crucial because New Zealand are solid. They have lost only five wickets during the first six overs.

BUTTLER, GAME-CHANGER

When compared to England, NZ bowlers do not get early wickets. They have picked up only seven in five games but what their swing bowlers do to a great extent is bowl dry, even during the powerplay overs. Their economy rate during the first is a frankly outrageous 5.73 in this phase in the group. England, and Buttler, may treat them differently. No side has scored at a better clip in this phase at the World Cup, that's the kind of damage somebody like Buttler can do at the top.

ROY REPLACEMENT

England's well oiled machine received a jolt after it was confirmed that Jason Roy would be out through injury. How do they replace him is the bigger part of that problem? First, who opens, Dawid Malan or Jonny Bairstow? Do they bring in replacement James Vince straightaway and open with him? Or do they opt to go with an extra bowler, David Willey while opening with Bairstow or Malan. Lots of questions and something that could keep the management occupied till the toss.

The Kiwi leg-spinner, Ish Sodhi, has quietly compiled decent numbers (eight wickets while striking at 12.75). He tends to come in after the powerplay and has the happy knack of picking up wickets, even for balls that ought to be deposited beyond the boundary. Against England, he is a negative match-up because of the left-hander heavy nature. So will Kane Williamson risk using him against Jos Buttler with the field up or challenge him to go against a negative match-up?

GUPTILL AT THE TOP

The Black Caps' batting is, for want of a more technical term, unsexy. They don't look to go for the big shots, they believe in accumulation, wicket preservation before trying to explode at the death. Martin Guptill is the exception. He's almost like the NZ version of Quinton de Kock. The numbers bear this out. He is NZ's leader in 4s (17 to Daryl Mitchell's 11) and 6s (eight to Mitchell's five) and runs (176 to Williamson's 126). Suffice to say get him and NZ could struggle to set a total.

India set to begin T20 life under Rohit

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Chennai

VENKATESH IYER, Avesh Khan and Harshal Patel have all been rewarded for decent Indian Premier League campaigns with a call-up to the senior squad for the three-match T20I series against New Zealand, beginning on November 17 in Jaipur. As expected, Rohit Sharma, long term deputy of Virat Kohli, will skipper the side in the game's shortest format.

Interestingly, there are as many as five batters who can open in the team named for the series. With so many openers, it needs to be seen how their roles will be defined.

Keeping in mind the workload some of the players have gone through, only seven of the 15 who played in the World Cup will be part of the series against New Zealand. It's also going to be a big series for Shreyas Iyer, who has earned a recall for the first time since injuring his shoulder against England in March. It's a big series for him because the middle order has been a problem position for India. A lack of a No 4 has cost the side and this is Shreyas' opportunity to nail it down.

Among all the three new names, it will be interesting to see how coach Rahul Dravid and skipper Rohit use Venkatesh. Will he play in the Hardik Pandya role, a finisher apart from being a fifth bowler? If yes, that wasn't what his role was for Kolkata Knight Riders where he opened.

In the bowling department, Ravichandran Ashwin, whose last T20I match in India was the 2016 World Cup semifinal against West Indies, surprisingly keeps his place. He will lead the spin department in the company of Axar Patel and Yuzvendra Chahal, who was overlooked for the World Cup.

India's T20I squad: Rohit Sharma (C), KL Rahul, Ruturaj Gaikwad, Shreyas Iyer, Suryakumar Yadav, Rishabh Pant (wk), Ishan Kishan (wk), Venkatesh Iyer, Yuzvendra Chahal, R Ashwin, Axar Patel, Avesh Khan, Bhuvneshwar Kumar, Deepak Chahar, Harshal Patel, Mohd. Siraj.

India A squad for South Africa tour: Priyank Panchal (C), Prithvi Shaw, Abhimanyu Easwaran, Devdutt Padikkal, Sarfaraz Khan, Baba Aparajith, Upendra Yadav (wk), K Gowtham, Rahul Chahar, Saurabh Kumar, Navdeep Saini, Umran Malik, Ishan Porel, Arzan Nagwaswalla.

Sanjay Bangar named RCB head coach

ENS @Bengaluru

ROYAL Challengers Bangalore, on Tuesday, appointed Sanjay Bangar as the head coach for next season. He will take over from Mike Hesson, who will continue to work with the team in his existing role as Director of Cricket Operations. Interestingly, the New Zealander had donned the additional role of head coach in second leg of the IPL 2021 in UAE.

Bangar will have to get busy straight away with the upcoming mega auctions. "It's an honor and great opportunity to serve such a great franchise in the capacity of head coach. I have worked with some exceptional and talented members in the squad and can't wait to take this team to the next level. There's a lot of work that needs to be done with the IPL mega auctions and the season following it, but I'm sure that together with the continued support of the management and the support staff, we can deliver the goods and bring cheer to our fans across the globe," said Bangar, who was, earlier in February, appointed as the side's batting consultant.

TN, Hyderabad reach QF; Karnataka in pre-quarters

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

IT is the end of the Syed Mushtaq Ali Trophy group stages, and five teams from Elite Group A to E — Tamil Nadu, Bengal, Rajasthan, Gujarat and Hyderabad — have booked their quarterfinals berth. Meanwhile, second-placed teams from these groups, including Maharashtra, Karnataka, Himachal, Kerala and Saurashtra have made it to the pre-quarters alongside plate toppers Vidarbha.

In Elite Group B, Karnataka, who had come into their match against Bengal with four straight wins, lost their first match of the competition by seven runs, pushing them down to the second place. Karnataka will meet Saurashtra for a spot in the last eight.

Manish Pandey's side suffered a poor start as they were placed at 11/2 with openers Mayank Agarwal and Devdutt Padikkal back in the dugout. But, Pandey (32) and Karun Nair (44) steadied the ship and helped the team end up with 134/8.

That total was enough with Abhimanyu Easwaran hitting an unbeaten half-century to help his team reach the target.

For Tamil Nadu, the big names stood up. Chasing 146 for victory, things looked a bit dicey for TN at 31/2, but a brilliant third-wicket partnership of 105 runs between opener N Jagadeesan (67) and skipper Vijay Shankar (59 n.o) ensured they emerged victorious.

Amongst the elite teams, Hyderabad have proved to be one of the best teams, with five wins out of five after their impressive 29-run win over Uttar Pradesh.

SELECT SCORES Group A: Punjab 145/6 in 20 ovs (Gurkeerat 43 n.o, Warrier 2/20) lost to Tamil Nadu 148/3 in 17.1 ovs (Jagadeesan 67, Vijay 59 n.o), Odisha 132/7 in 20 ovs (Bhati 4/27, Sharma 2/19) lost to Pondicherry 136/4 in 19 ovs (Dogra 54 n.o, R Ragupathy 39). Group B: Karnataka 134/8 in 20 ovs (Nair 44, Kumar 3/33, Pramanik 2/33) lost to Bengal 138/3 in 18 ovs (Easwaran 51 n.o, Ahmed 34 n.o). Group C: Himachal 148/7 in 20 ovs (Dhawan 57, Chopra 35, C Stephen 4/11) bt Andhra 118 (Hebbar 43, Jaiswal 5/18, Dhawan 3/16). Group D: Madhya Pradesh 171/5 in 20 ovs (Patidar 77, Akhil 2/35) lost to Kerala 172/2 in 18 ovs (Baby 51 n.o, Samson 56 n.o). Group E: Hyderabad 147/7 in 20 ovs (Agarwal 62, Yash 2/20) bt Uttar Pradesh 118 (Nath 36; Milind 5/8), Saurashtra 166/6 in 20 ovs (Jackson 79 n.o, Jani 42, Vashisht 2/42) bt Delhi 153/5 in 20 ovs (Shorey 33, Patel 2/35).

France advises against moderna over heart risk

The risk, while low, is higher in men under 30 and more pronounced after the 2nd dose of Moderna

HEALTH

> When you measure the effectiveness of vaccines against severe cases of Covid-19 and the risks that exist but are rare... the value of vaccines is not in doubt
>

PARIS: French health authorities advised against use of the Moderna Covid jab for people under 30 late yesterday, after a nation-wide study confirmed a slight risk of cardiac inflammation associated with mRNA vaccines.

The study from Epi-Phare, an independent medicines safety research group that works closely with the French government, confirmed previous findings—while noting cases are rare and do not cast doubt on the effectiveness of the shots.

It looked at all people in France aged 12 to 50 who were hospitalised for myocarditis (inflammation of the heart muscle) or pericarditis (inflammation of the tissue surrounding the heart) between May 15 and August 31 of this year.

Results showed that vaccines from both Pfizer and Moderna increase the risk of these illnesses within seven days of vaccination.

The risk, while low, is higher in men under 30 years old and particularly after a second dose of the Moderna vaccine, which the study found possibly responsible for some 132 cases of myocarditis per million doses given.

For Pfizer the result was nearly 80 per cent lower, with the number of cases per million doses estimated at 27.

In women under 30, Moderna may have led to 37 cases of myocarditis per million doses.

Risk of pericarditis is also greater after a second dose of Moderna in people under 30, with 18 cases per million doses given in young men.

No deaths among patients hospitalised with these illnesses following vaccination have been reported.

The US has also delayed approval of the Moderna jab for young people, though last week they recommended use of the Pfizer vaccine for children ages five to 11 after reviewing the risks of myocarditis.

Paediatric cardiologist Matthew Oster, commenting on the Pfizer recommendation at the time, said he was "much more worried" about the risks of Covid to young people than risks posed by the vaccine. Mahmoud Zureik, who heads up Epi-Phare, echoed the sentiment.

"When you measure the effectiveness of vaccines against severe cases of Covid-19 and the risks that exist but are rare... the value of vaccines is not in doubt," he told AFP.

Jabs for all health service workers in England

All frontline workers in the National Health Service (NHS) in England will need to be fully jabbed against Covid-19 from April 1 or lose their jobs, Health Minister Sajid Javid said on Tuesday.

"Having considered the... advice of my officials and NHS leaders including the chief executive of the NHS, I have concluded that all those working in the NHS and social care will have to be vaccinated," he told parliament.

The government had already announced that all care home workers will need to have had both jabs from November 11, but was waiting on the findings of a consultation before extending it to all NHS frontline staff. "Our six-week consultation received over 34,000 responses," said Javid.

Countries demand loss & damage help

CLIMATE

GLASGOW: When cyclones Idai and Kenneth smashed into Mozambique's coast in March 2019 they left a quarter of a million people homeless and put a further million in dire need of medicine, food and sanitation assistance.

The country asked for $3 billion to help rebuild infrastructure, secure supplies and handle outbreaks of waterborne diseases. Instead it received a $120 million loan from the International Monetary Fund, and it was many months before more finance arrived.

"It was a fraction of what was needed," Daniel Ribeiro, technical coordinator at Justica Ambiental/Friends of the Earth Mozambique, told AFP.

While UN COP26 talks are struggling to rustle up promised funding to help vulnerable states prepare for the future impacts of the climate crisis, states already reeling from climate disaster are demanding separate, immediate money for "loss and damage".

When countries first signed up to the COP negotiations process more than 30 years ago, climate change was viewed as a future problem.

Then in 2009, richer nations—historically responsible for the vast majority of plant-warming greenhouse gas emissions—vowed to provide $100 billion annually by the year 2020. The cash was earmarked for two tasks: mitigation and adaptation. But today, with just 1.1C of warming so far, nations around the world are already being battered by extreme weather, with climate-linked disasters displacing tens of millions and inflicting hundreds of billions worth of damage.

Yet funding for loss and damage is not even on the official negotiation agenda in Glasgow. Harjeet Singh, senior advisor at Climate Action Network International, said that loss and damage "cannot be a side issue". "We are seeing impacts hit vulnerable communities in poor countries even as these climate talks continue," he told AFP.

FACT OF THE MATTER

Holy grail for tech collectors

TECH

An original Apple computer, hand-built by company founders Steve Jobs and Steve Wozniak 45 years ago, goes under the hammer in the US on Tuesday. The functioning Apple-1, the great-great-grandfather of today's sleek chrome-and-glass Macbooks, is expected to fetch up to $6,00,000 at an auction in California. The so-called "Chaffey College" Apple-1 is one of only 200 made by Jobs and Wozniak at the very start of the company's odyssey from garage start-up to megalith worth $2 tn. What makes it even rarer is the fact the computer is encased in koa wood—a richly patinated wood native to Hawaii. One computer shop that took a delivery of around 50 units encased some of them in wood, the auction house said.

Virgin sells 100 more tickets

SPACE

Virgin Galactic has sold around 100 more tickets since flying its founder Richard Branson to space last summer, with commercial services expected to begin by the end of 2022. The current price of the fare is $4,50,000 per seat, well above the $2,00,000-$2,50,000 paid by some 600 customers from 2005 to 2014. In total, the company has now sold 700 tickets. Since Branson flew on the Virgin Galactic, the company has faced setbacks. In September, it was briefly grounded by the Federal Aviation Administration, which found that the flight deviated from its assigned airspace did not communicate the "mishap" as required. In October, Virgin said it was postponing a mission, after testing revealed materials used might have fallen below required strength margins.

Rana Daggubati, who will be in the city next week, talks about his love for sports, fitness and upcoming projects

FIT FACTOR

SHREYA VERONICA

ACTOR Rana Daggubati is known and loved for more than just his acting skills. His talent, his varied interests and the efforts he puts into the things he loves and that matter, make him the cult favourite that he is. Daggubati, who recently tied up with Sony Sports Telugu, talks about his love for sports, fitness and quality content.

Given the actor's fit physique, it's no surprise that he was into sports since school. "I was fascinated by the various sports played across the globe. I loved WWF, this was what it was called back then. It had a great cultural influence on me and those around me as I was growing up. The fact that I'm now endorsing the same channel means a great deal to me," says Daggubati, who will be in Bengaluru on Monday.

As a child, Rana was one of the rarest kids who wasn't obsessed with cricket and looked beyond it. "I was a huge follower of the NBA (National Basketball Association), and I followed wrestling all my life. I watched athletics, soccer and was a big fan of boxing too. Twenty-thirty years ago, Indians were barely exposed to these sports. In fact, I could not play cricket very well (laughs), and did not like it much. So now, I like to be associated with sports that are still making baby steps in India. I am very happy to be a part of this growth and am glad I'm getting to do my bit towards this change," the sports enthusiast tells CE.

The latest update about his WWE merchandise has certainly raised curiosity among people. The fan in him was evident through his posts!

"With every film of mine, I usually take a prop from the sets as memorabilia for myself. For Baahubali, it was the mace and now with Sony, they made me feel like I won a WWE belt! So this had to go on my Instagram!" shares the star, whose caption to the post read: ".... my best souvenir from any commercial shoot ever... period!!"

We ask him if it's sports that keeps him fit and he replies, "More than any sport, my job keeps me fit. Because, you see, I'm constantly playing new roles that need some sort of a physical transformation. All that training and bodybuilding I undertake for my roles in films keep me fit."

Daggubati's fitness mantra is simple — find time for fitness and not excuses. "This is the only mantra since day one of my fitness journey. It's so easy to find excuses to skip a workout, it's hard to stay fit, but you must keep at it."

Before he signs off, he reveals a little about his upcoming projects. "My film, Virata Parvam, is in the last leg of post-production, I'm very close to completing Bheemla Nayak with Pawan Kalyan. I am also filming for a Netflix series called Rana Naidu. So there's an interesting mix of stuff coming up. All of next year, you will see a lot of me in different formats and different languages," Daggubati says.

> I could not play cricket very well and I did not like it much. So now, I like to be associated with sports that are still making baby steps in India

UP CLOSE AND PERSONAL

ANILA KURIAN

SEEMA Rajan (name changed) has been on a low ever since the passing of her husband last year. Not in the frame of mind to connect with the outside world, Rajan found herself isolated. During one such lonely day, she came across the now trending concept of boudoir photography. Delving deeper, she realised that it could be something that would help her regain her self-confidence and move on.

Boudoir photography is catching up among Bengalureans, who are hiring photographers to capture intimate pictures of themselves in a black and white format. The pandemic and subsequent events have left many feeling vulnerable. And instead of turning to people to rid their loneliness, they are approaching professionals for boudoir photos to help them "shed inhibitions and feel like themselves again". While professional shoots for boudoir photography are on the rise, many prefer to take these pictures themselves. Priced between ₹15,000 and ₹25,000 per day, the shoot takes a day to complete. As a social media experiment, Instagram user 'Photobot' (@ethnic.boudoir) started a series called 'Ashleel and Proud' for women to share their boudoir shots. "As a professional photographer, I do several boudoir shoots. When the lockdown happened and meetings were limited, I thought this series would be a great way to get more people to participate," Photobot says.

Every 15 day or so, he uploads the different boudoir shoots he receives from his large following on Instagram.

"Honestly, many men in particular assume it's pornography which it's not. Boudoir still has some sort of stigma attached to it," he explains.

Food and interiors photographer Soham Shoney, who has also ventured into boudoir photography, focuses on a body scaping style, where instead of focusing on the whole body, he uses the person as a landscape and highlights certain parts. "Close-up shots are usually my style. As much as I'd like to experiment with it outdoors, our country is too closed-minded for that. So I set up the studio indoors which works well — the client is also comfortable with the same," says Shoney.

While these pictures are for private use, depending on how comfortable they feel, some women tend to share them on social media platforms as well. But from a photographer's point of view, how secure does one feel taking pictures like these?

Ojas Thekkekara of Ginger Films says, "I haven't had to sign a non-disclosure agreement with anyone yet, but that's always a good idea. Those who have approached me have been the people know personally and trust me enough to shoot."

The key to this style of photography is making someone feel comfortable in their skin. Which is why Thekkekara meets his clients a couple of times before the shoot day. "No matter how well you know the person, it's important to not cross a certain line when here. You have to make her feel absolutely comfortable — cracking a joke or two would help — and keep her relaxed, so that the results show what she wants."

SHOOTING THE SHOT

Natural light works best. Light from windows works much better than tube lights

It's important to note that boudoir photography has nothing to do with porn. It's about embracing one's body and feeling positive about it

Look for references online and choose what suits you best

Build a rapport with your photographer to be comfortable in your own skin

WHAT IS BOUDOIR PHOTOGRAPHY?

It is a style of photography that features intimate or romantic images that promote body positivity. It is shot in the rawest format and in black and white. The idea of boudoir is for the person in front of the camera to feel empowered.

LAUKI KEBABS

INGREDIENTS

- Bottle gourd: 1, medium-cut
- Beetroot: 1
- Gram flour: 1/2 cup
- Sooji: 1/4 cup
- Vegetables of your choice
- Bathua leaves ■ Salt and pepper
- Red chilli powder
- Garam & chaat masala: 1 tbsp each
- Oil: 2 tbsp, peanuts, mustard seeds and curry leaves

METHOD

- Grate the bottle gourd and beetroot.
- Take the flour and sooji in a big mixing bowl. Add grated vegetables and chop the bathua leaves. Add spices and mix. The mixture should be loose and be able to hold a shape. Water needn't be added, since a bottle gourd secretes water.
- Make shapes and steam in an idli container for about 7-8 minutes. Prepare the tadka. Let the mustard seeds, curry leaves and peanuts crackle. Add the kebabs and saute for a minute. Serve with chutney.

SHUNI MUDRA

(SEAL OF PATIENCE)

In Sanskrit, 'shuni' means saturn and 'mudra' means hand gesture. Shuni Mudra is a mudra of intuition. Hence, it is known as the 'seal of patience.' In Vedic Astrology, the planet Saturn represents self discipline and karmic cycles. Therefore, when we apply this Mudra, we are welcoming acknowledgement and accountability for our actions while remaining patient and pure in the process. Simply touching the fingers or hands together in a specific gesture can improve the entire energy map of your body.

STEPS

- Sit in any comfortable sitting posture and place the hands on your thighs with the palm facing upwards.
- Meditation postures like Padmasana (lotus pose), Vajrasana (thunderbolt Pose, Shukhasana (easy pose), are ideal.
- Close your eyes and take deep breaths to generate awareness within. You can also perform this mudra with open eyes.
- It all depends on your preferences. But doing this mudra with closed eyes helps in better self-consciousness.
- Touch the tip of the middle or second finger with the tip of the thumb of the same hand. Do it simultaneously with both hands.
- This position naturally gives it a circular shape.
- Keep the other three fingers straight and pointing up. You can use this mudra to increase your patience.
- In the mornings, our mind is in its freshest state, free of all tensions and stress. Hence, for best results, practice this mudra in the morning.
- Practice it 20-30 minutes a day or do it 15 minutes thrice.

BENEFITS

- Helps cultivate compassion, understanding and patience.
- Helps develop noble thoughts and transform negative emotions to positive ones.
- It will increase your sense of commitment.
- Very useful in helping with relaxation.
- Promotes conscious feelings.

LIMITATIONS

- Keep the touch light when you bring the tip of the middle or second finger with the tip of the thumb together.
- If you are feeling very weak, you should not perform this mudra.

Foreword by AMITABH BACHCHAN
THE STARS IN MY SKY
Those who brightened my film journey
DIVYA DUTTA

'CALL me and come next week,' he said. Wow! That was simple.

Before I knew it, I was sitting in his office. All the walls were covered with posters of movies I had loved watching as a kid! In about ten minutes, the peon came and said, 'Sir is calling you. Aaiye!'

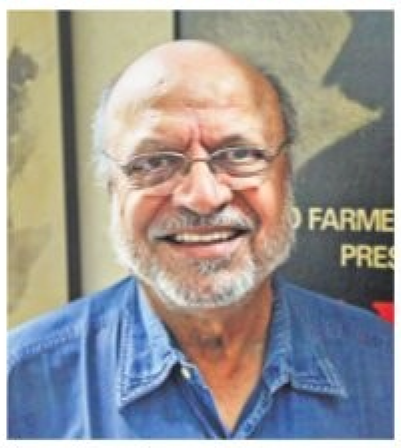
His room was full of books and he was sitting in the corner, reading something. 'Come my dear! How are you?'

Life can be so intriguing. I had been telling the world that I would love to meet Shyam Benegal someday and now that he was sitting in front of me, words eluded me. I kept crushing the poor little tissue paper in my hand and mustered a belated, 'How are you sir? I am fine!' All in the same breath.

He smiled.

I am sure he could gauge that I was nervous. 'Have some tea,' he said and asked for two cups to be brought in.

After an awkward silence, I managed, 'Sir . . . err, Shyam babu, I would so love to work with you. Do you have something for me in your next?'



Shyam Benegal

I wasn't used to asking anything from anyone but with him, I felt I could. It felt so right.

He thought for a moment and rolled up his fingers to make a lens-like gesture and looked at me through it. I'll never forget that moment! And the pause after it. I waited with bated breath as he sat thinking. 'Okay, young lady! So, I already have a cast for my film Samar . . .' My heart sank. He then continued, '. . . but there's a dance number in it . . . a folk number. Would you like to do it?'

I was about to stand up and jump but I controlled myself, 'Yes, of course, Shyam babu!'

'Okay, lovely. I shall ask the team to give you all the details.

See you then,' he said.

I pinched myself as I walked out. In my experience in the industry till then, I was used to promises being made but never being fulfilled. And here was a man who had just met me, and instantly told me what he had to offer. No postponing. No promises. That is Shyam babu! Always honest, clear and straightforward. He says things the way they are and offers the best possible solutions for every query. Nothing complicated. He made me wonder: if everything can be that simple, why do people complicate it? And that, I think, is the sign of a genuinely successful man and achiever who is so secure with himself that he does not need to derive it by rubbing his powerful status on others. On the contrary, his simplicity surprised me. He never said, 'Call my manager', even though I was a rank newcomer. He said, 'Call me if you have any queries, lady!'

I went back humming and dancing, counting the days till I would join him at the shoot in Sagar, Madhya Pradesh (MP). I was debuting in a Shyam Benegal film with a dance number! That was special since Shyam Benegal movies mostly don't have song and dance numbers. And yes, I was finally working with the Shyam Benegal!

I was informed well in advance that everyone would be travelling by train and staying at the same hotel.

In those days, I had no man Friday or personal staff travelling with me, so I was alone. But, very meticulously, I had been booked with some other crew members, so I didn't face any problems.

Sagar is a very small town in MP. So, there were two hotels there for the crew. Unfortunately, my friends Rajit Kapur and Rajeshwari were in the other hotel along with Shyam babu and Seema Biswas. My hotel was lovely but all the people I was familiar with were in the other one, so I felt a bit alone.

Not for too long though. I was told that Shyam babu had called me to his hotel to discuss something. I was wondering what it could be. When I reached the hotel, I got a very warm welcome. Shyam babu introduced me to everyone and then later asked me, '. . . so what are your hobbies, my dear?' I excitedly said, 'Shyam babu, I love watching movies, cooking and reading.' Before I could think of more, he said, 'Okay great! So, today, this young lady will cook something for us as it's a break day!'

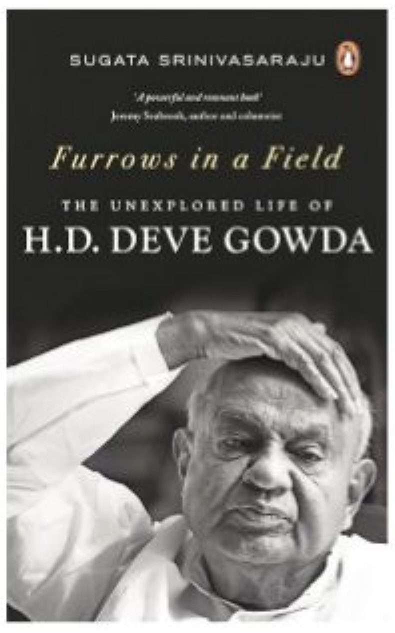
Biography on Deve Gowda to release on Nov 29

VETERAN journalist Sugata Srinivasaraju will be releasing his new book–Furrows in a Field–a biography on former Prime Minister of India, H D Deve Gowda. The book gives an account of the highs and lows of Gowda's journey in national and regional politics. It also examines his federal commitment and his vast knowledge about irrigation agriculture and law. Speaking about the book, Srinivasaraju says, "The history of post-Independent Indian politics has been partial to some and cruel to many. For me, studying HD Deve Gowda's life, politics, and times has been about restoring the balance. It has been about tracking our own perceptions, prejudices, and misjudgments. It has been about exploring the diversity and democratic traditions of India and its vibrant federal character."

Commenting on the experience of writing the book on Gowda, Srinivasaraju says, "As I wrote this book, the life of Deve Gowda presented itself to me as a fascinating intermingling of the local and the universal; of the traditional and the modern; of the urban and the rural; of ritual and reason. The finest realisation was that none of these binaries has ever existed apart but have always made meaning together. As the writing of this biography drew to a close, I felt immensely lucky and gratified. Very rarely are learnings so fresh and bountiful." The book is centred around Gowda's rich parliamentary record, archival material and interviews conducted with people associated with him at various stages of his life. The book published by Penguin Random House India, will be out on November 29.



Top publishers relieved to be back at events

PUBLISHERS and distributors have expressed a sigh of relief at being able to return to on-ground events. On the sidelines of the 40th Sharjah International Book Fair (SIBF), several of them said that they were happy to be interacting with people after travel restrictions around the world eased over the recent weeks.

Kanchan Wanchoo Sharma, who heads public relations and international exhibitions at National Book Trust (NBT), India, an apex body established in 1957 to encourage and promote books and reading under India's Ministry of Education, said, "The Frankfurt book fair that we attended last month was more of a B2B (business-to-business) event. So this fair is our first big global event in that sense since the pandemic struck us."

Almost every top private or government publisher from India was forced to give the SIBF, the region's top literary event and amongst the world's most reputed, a miss last year owing to the then on-going travel restrictions due to Covid-19. So the sentiments remain the same for all of them. "This is one of the biggest annual book festivals in the world, alongside the ones in Frankfurt and London, but for us this is the first big event we are attending this year after flight restrictions began easing globally. That should tell you why attending this event was so crucial for us," said Maruf Alam, business manager of Publications Division, a Government of India (GoI) undertaking. — IANS

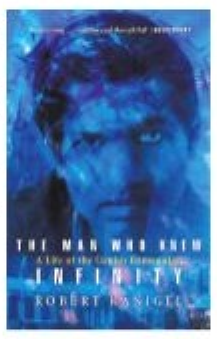
Math Matters

I have gone from having nightmares of Math to being in love with it. I assume many of us have felt nervous before a Math exam (even when we were very well prepared) and dreaded the outcome. One of my concerns with the education system was that it never emphasised how Math can be applied to our day to day lives.

The first time I started enjoying Math was entirely because of my incredible Math teacher – Mr S K Banerjee. However, it was a long time before I read a Math book like a novel. And that book was Simon Singh's Fermat's Last Theorem. The theorem is the most notorious problem in the history of mathematics and surrounding it is one of the greatest stories imaginable. Around 1637, Pierre de Fermat scribbled this proposition in the margin of a copy of Arithmetica: no three positive integers a, b, and c satisfy the equation an + bn = cn for any integer value of n greater than 2. It took 358 years of effort by mathematicians before the first successful proof was released in 1994 by Andrew Wiles and formally published in 1995. Singh's book not only explains the theorem but also tells the fascinating stories of mathematicians whose lives were tormented by this intriguing problem. I loved the book so much that I sent a copy to Mr Banerjee!

Seventeen Equations that Changed the World by Ian Stewart is both informative and entertaining. From Newton's Law of Gravity to the Black-Scholes model used by bankers to predict the markets, equations are omnipresent and fundamental to everyday life. This book examines 17 ground-breaking equations and explores how Pythagoras's Theorem led to GPS and Satnav (satellite navigation); how logarithms are applied in architecture; why imaginary numbers were important in the development of the digital camera, and what is really going on with Schrödinger's cat!



For many Indians who have grown up hearing the story of the genius Srinivasa Ramanujam, The Man who knew Infinity by Robert Kanigel is a must read (it was later made into a movie). Ramanujam died at 32 but left behind a magical and inspiring legacy that is still being plumbed for its secrets. A similar book is Finding Fibonacci by Keith Devlin. The author has delved into the life of Fibonacci (famous for the Fibonacci number which, ironically, he did not invent!) whose book Liber Abbaci (the book of calculation) in 1202 introduced modern arithmetic to the western world.

Zero by science journalist Charles Seife is an entertaining look at a number that is both nothing and everything. The book follows the number from its birth as an Eastern philosophical concept to its struggle for acceptance in Europe, its rise and transcendence in the West, and its ever-present threat to modern physics. Today, zero lies at the heart of one of the biggest scientific controversies of all time: the quest for a theory of everything.

And finally, I would urge everyone to read Weapons of Math Destruction by Cathy O Neil. It is important to know how the decisions that affect our lives — where we go to school, whether we get a car loan, how much we pay for health insurance — are being made not by humans, but by mathematical models. The models being used today are often opaque, unregulated, and uncontestable even when they're wrong. Most troubling, they reinforce discrimination. This important book empowers us to ask the tough questions, uncover the truth, and demand change.

WHAT HAPPENED TO REGULAR NAMES?

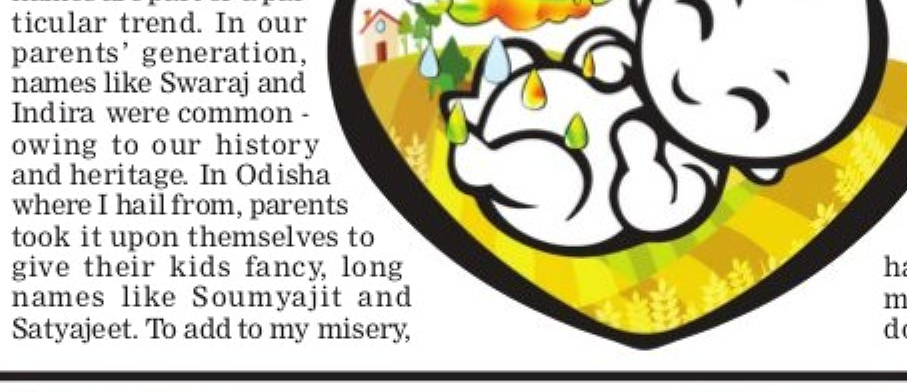
URBAN BOURBON
Hriday Ranjan

Writer, comedian

A curious phenomenon I have noticed in recent times is that of parents giving their children exotic names. Aarav, Ahaan, Anaya and Shanaya are the names one finds among children growing up in towns and cities today. Of course, naming one's child is one of the few freedoms a parent has over the child, and I am nobody to complain.

But one is left wondering what happened to regular names. When I was growing up, the most common names given to children were easy to spell, pronounce and recollect. Rakesh, Rajesh, Sunil and Ajay were names that sounded familiar, and did not require any knowledge of linguistics or etymology to fathom the meanings of. Girls' names were similar too. Every class had their fair share of Poojas, Nehas, Shwetas and Swatis. Names also came in pairs – if there were two siblings in a family, they would be given similar sounding names. Like Rakesh and Rajesh, or Jyothika and Bhoomika.

Upon doing a little research, I found that most names are part of a particular trend. In our parents' generation, names like Swaraj and Indira were common - owing to our history and heritage. In Odisha where I hail from, parents took it upon themselves to give their kids fancy, long names like Soumyajit and Satyajeet. To add to my misery, Odia parents give children absurd pet names. All my childhood friends are called Chimpa, Babuna, or Kalia at home. And Yours Truly has the most unfortunate pet name of them all – Puppu!



Back in the day, having a familiar name had an added benefit – it shielded a child from unnecessary bullying. For having an unfamiliar name would often result in classmates teasing them. We had two classmates named 'Srupen' and 'Sakora', and they were teased endlessly about their names, often confiding in us that they wished they had had different names. Going by the modern names around us, one can only fathom that while in the '90s parents wanted their children to fit in, today's parents want their children to stand out.

This trend of exotic names has also spilled over to the nomenclature of pets. While pet dogs of my generation were content with names like Brownie, Blackie and Tipu, dogs of today are christened Charlie, Max, or Tango. The pressure on dogs has increased too. While pet dogs of our time were required to give strangers a 'handshake' and play 'fetch', dogs of today have to be photogenic, and feature prominently on Instagram reels!

But in this clamour for exotic, vowel-heavy names, parents forget one crucial fact. That Indian schools allot roll numbers in alphabetical order. So while you may go about naming your child Aarav and Ahaan, the poor kids will have to suffer the torture of the first few roll numbers in class, and the first rows during an examination. The children will probably curse you for life, for making them pay for your poetic inclinations.

If you really care for your children, give them names like Yohan or Zorashtra. Your children will sit in the safe confines of the back rows of classrooms. They will be called up to the blackboard after all the other students' assignments have been checked, and the teachers have gotten tired. They will be safe from the cruel stares and jabs of the teachers, and thank you for giving them a wholesome life! 'What's in a name', William Shakespeare might have said. But easy for him to say – he had a nice name. If he was named Sai William Shakespeare, or William Puppu - he wouldn't be one to talk!

Patty Jenkins' upcoming Star Wars spinoff delayed

CE FEATURES

THE shooting of Patty Jenkins' upcoming Star Wars film, Rogue Squadron, has been delayed. The film, which was set to begin production in 2022, might not start on the expected date, and this might also impact the scheduled release date of December 22, 2023.

Apart from this project, Jenkins, known for helming the Wonder Woman films, is also supposed to direct the third movie in the DC franchise. She is also set to direct a Gal Gadot-fronted Cleopatra film at Paramount.

Rogue Squadron was supposed to be the first big-screen outing for the Star Wars universe since Disney and Lucasfilm wrapped up the Skywalker clan's nine-film saga with 2019's Star Wars: The Rise of Skywalker.

Since wrapping up the nine-film saga, the concentration of the banners has been more on developing their OTT offerings with The Mandalorian and the upcoming Obi-Wan Kenobi series, starring Ewan McGregor. The Disney plus streamer will also see the premiere of Book of Boba Fett in December, and a proposed spinoff based on Ahsoka, a character portrayed by Rosario Dawson in The Mandalorian.

Meanwhile, Lucasfilm is also backing the fifth instalment in the Indiana Jones franchise, which was delayed due to Harrison Ford's shoulder injury.

... says music director Midhun Mukundan who talks about his association with director-actor Raj B Shetty; shares his experience of composing tunes for a gangster drama

> Any uniqueness in the music of GGVV should be credited to Raj and his distinct perspectives. He explains what he wants and lets us do our thing. He gives us the freedom to try out any crazy ideas we have. We are close friends, and that helps

CE FEATURES

GARUDA Gamana Vrishabha Vahana (GGVV) marks the 11th film for music director Midhun Mukundan and his second film with director and lead actor Raj B Shetty, with whom he worked in Ondu Motteya Kathe. Midhun has composed four songs for the film, produced under Lighter Buddha Films banner and is presented by Rakshit Shetty's Paramvah Studios. Rishab is also playing a lead role in the film, set to be released on November 19. In a conversation with CE, Midhun shares his experience of working on GGVV.

When asked if Midhun has a different approach to Raj B Shetty's films, he says, "Any uniqueness in the music of GGVV should be credited to Raj and his distinct perspectives. He explains what he wants and lets us do our thing. He gives us the freedom to try out any crazy ideas we have. We are close friends, and that helps."

Midhun says that the biggest challenge in scoring for GGVV was its situations. "Most of the composing happened during the Corona pandemic lockdown. It was a difficult time for all of us, and to be creative in that period was a challenge. However, we didn't rush things," explains Midhun, who adds that he enjoyed composing long musical pieces without dialogues. "I knew I had a huge task at hand watching the film. However, I never felt overwhelmed. It was fun and creatively satisfying. Raj didn't make any change of plans right from the first cut. We had a clear vision. He described the kind of music he wanted and would often direct us from the audience's point of view," he says.

Talking about songs being used as background scores, Midhun says, " It is the case with GGVV also. That's one of the reasons we are not releasing the other three songs. We want people to experience the tracks in the film. That's when the impact will be right."

When asked to choose a favourite between the songs and the BGM of GGVV, he says, "It is hard to do that. Everything was an extremely gratifying experience, and it was more of teamwork." Midhun makes a special mention of the film's sound engineer, Hriday Goswami - "He is the one who moulds the sounds created by me. My compositions get completed by him. As far as the background score, I am myself waiting to experience it in the theatres and see how the audience react," he says.

Midhun's upcoming projects include Sakutumba Sametha, web series Ekam, and anthology Roopantara.

AN ETERNAL DREAM COME TRUE

GOPINATH RAJENDRAN

ACTOR Harish Patel, known for his Bollywood work like the cult classic Gunda (1998), is growing by the day, even as his repertoire of Hollywood and British cinema seems to be expanding. His latest film? Marvel Cinematic Universe's Eternals! Patel takes us on a nostalgic trip to the 90s while speaking of how he landed the project: "I started with English projects when I did the 1993 British series, The Buddha of Suburbia, which aired on BBC 2. I kept doing work in the West and got signed by an agency. A casting director from the UK contacted my manager to say that the team was considering me for a role in MCU's latest film," says Patel who had to send an audition tape. "The scene I was told to enact was not a part of the film (smiles). Even my name was not Karun. I ended up getting selected and I owe it all to destiny."

The actor jokes when I ask if the makers have seen his Indian films. "If they had, they wouldn't have roped me in (laughs). I think it's because of the films, series and stage shows I have done overall. I have done a play (Rafta, Rafta...) for the Royal National Theatre too which won the Laurence Olivier Award for Best New Comedy 2007. I also did Romeo and Juliet for Shakespeare's Globe (in 2017, enacted the role of Friar Lawrence) in London," says Patel. "It was a great experience to work with director Chloé Zhao and all the ten stars who acted as the Eternals. I would talk about them all but that would take up the entire duration of this interview (laughs). Working with them was like working with family."

In Eternals, the actor plays Karun, the manager of Kingo (Kumail Nanjiani). "I was able to speak a lot about films with Kumail. He was present when I was giving my final audition in London, and he helped me out with the English lines. The whole cast was quite accommodating of me," says the actor who mentions how Hollywood's professionalism makes it stand out from our film industry.

"I can't believe that I had to miss the premiere of the film in the US," says Patel who tested positive for COVID-19 at the time this interview happened. "I was supposed to fly to Los Angeles, but I couldn't. I got quarantined in North Carolina at my daughter's house. I was depressed that I couldn't make it but when I started reading the reviews and the appreciation the film was getting, it made me very happy." For the actor, starring in Eternals is a dream come true. "At 68, doing such a film is a huge deal. What more can I ask for? That said, I do want to do more (laughs)."
